SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

ASSESSMENT INSURANCE COMPANIES MUST PAY

The General Tax—Important Opinion Rendered by Attorney General.

Assistant Attorney General Todd on Friday morning sent to State Insurance Commissioner Vorys a most important opinion relative to the taxation of insurance companies of Ohio that will be of interest to many people here.

Mr. Todd holds that assessment companies of all kinds, other than fraternal, are subject to the general tax of 2½ per cent upon the gross premium receipts from their business in this state.

All such companies, he says, in his opinion, except fraternal societies, must advertise their annual statements, showing that they have complied with law, in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where they have agents, and a certificate of compliance must be issued them by the insurance department. The laws, as interpreted by Mr. Todd, have never before been enforced against these companies, and no previous administration of the state insurance department has paid any attention to them. Their enforcement would greatly increase the revenue of the state. About 40 companies which have never reported their receipts to the state insurance department would be affected.

Mr. Todd further holds in his opinion that all mutual fire insurance companies are subject to the tax of ½ per cent upon their gross premium receipts for the maintenance of the state fire marshal's department, and that assessment associations known as farmers' associations are not so liable.

STREET CAR CONDUCTORS WILL GET THEM TOMORROW.

They Are All Very Well Pleased That the New Order is to Go Into Effect.

The street railway company will tomorrow start their conductors on regular runs.

They have for the past two weeks been running at random, the men not knowing from day to day when they would go on again, but they will now be assigned to regular time.

The old men, who have been assigned to duty as conductors will, as a matter of course, be given the preference in the way of runs, as well as a little the best of it in the matter of wages.

The new move will be greeted with satisfaction by the employees of the road, as it has been anything but agreeable to them to work as they have been lately.

It is expected the attorneys of the state generally will favor the bill, as all have at different times suffered as the Columbus lawyers did during the Sells trial, which blocked the wheels of the court for six weeks.

The proposed bill probably will authorize the appointment of a referee in contested divorce cases, who will take the evidence in chambers and report his findings to the court for action.

SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

ASSESSMENT INSURANCE COM-PANIES MUST PAY

The General Tax—Important Opinion
Rendered by Attorney
General.

Assistant Attorney General Todd on Friday morning sent to State Insurance Commissioner Vorys a most important opinion relative to the taxation of insurance companies of Ohio
that will be of interest to many people
here.

Mr. Todd holds that assessment companies of all kinds, other than fraternal,
are subject to the general tax of 2½ per cent upon the gross premium receipts from their business in this state.

All such companies, he says, in his opinion, except fraternal societies,
must advertise their annual statements, showing that they have complied with law, in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where they have agents, and a certificate of compliance must be issued them by the insurance department. The laws, as interpreted by Mr. Todd, have never before been enforced against these companies, and no previous administration of the state insurance department has paid any attention to them.
Their enforcement would greatly increase the revenue of the state. About 40 companies which have never reported their receipts to the state insurance department would be affected.

Mr. Todd further holds in his opinion that all mutual fire insurance companies are subject to the tax of ½ per cent upon their gross premium receipts for the maintenance of the state
fire marshal's department, and that assessment associations known as farmers' associations are not so liable.

from Scotland in 1836 and has resided in the vicinity of Glasgow ever since.

REGULAR RUNS.

STREET CAR CONDUCTORS WILL
GET THEM TOMORROW.

They Are All Very Well Pleased That
the New Order is to Go Into Effect.

The street railway company will tomorrow start their conductors on regular runs.

They have for the past two weeks
been running at random, the men not knowing from day to day when they would go on again, but they will now
be assigned to regular time.

The old men, who have been assigned to duty as conductors will, as a matter of course, be given the preference in the way of runs, as well as a little the best of it in the matter of wages.

The new move will be greeted with satisfaction by the employees of the road, as it has been anything but agreeable to them to work as they have been lately.

DIVORCE CASES.

As a Result of the Sells Case They
May Hereafter be Held Behind
Closed Doors.

One result of the Sells divorce case will be the introduction of a bill in the next legislature which will prevent the hearing of contested divorce
cases in public.

The bill will be drawn by a committee of the Franklin county bar, to be appointed at its next meeting, and will be fathered by the entire bar association of Franklin county.

It is expected the attorneys of the state generally will favor the bill, as all have at different times suffered as
the Columbus lawyers did during the Sells trial, which blocked the wheels
of the court for six weeks.

The proposed bill probably will authorize the appointment of a referee
in contested divorce cases, who will take the evidence in chambers and report his findings to the court for action.

TO SIOUX CITY.

Rev. S. P. Barrackman's Resignation is Today Being Considered by Steubenville Presbytery.

A called meeting of the Steubenville
presbytery of the United Presbyterian church is being held today in the First United Presbyterian church, this city.

The object of the meeting is to consider and act upon the resignation of
Rev. S. P. Barrackman, of the Saline-
ville pastorate.

Rev. Barrackman will leave soon for Sioux City, Ia., where he proposes organizing a mission.

A number of the members of presbytery will remain in this city over night for the purpose of attending a watch meeting to be held at the church
tonight.

AT ST. STEPHEN'S.

Rev. Ernest Craft Will Preach at the Watch Night Services to be Held Tonight.

Rev. Ernest Craft, of Elyria, arrived in the city at noon and will preach at the watch night services at New St.
Stephen's Episcopal church this evening at 10:30 o'clock.

CITY WAS GOOD DURING DECEMBER

Police Department Has Made Only
64 Arrests Up to Date Which Shows

A DECIDED FALLING OFF

From November, but It Is an Increase Over the Report For
Last Year.

ONE ARREST SATURDAY NIGHT

From present indications the month
of December promises to be notable
for the small number of arrests made
by the local police force.

To the present but 64 arrests have been made, and the prospects are that
that number will not be increased to
any extent before the end of the month. When compared with other months under the present administration the number is small. However,
it is considerably higher than the same
months in former years.

Saturday was unusually quiet, and
but one arrest was made. William Briggs evidently had some money left from Christmas and Saturday night he got drunk. He was found at a late hour at the McNicol pottery by Officer
Mahony. Briggs was fast asleep and Mahony called the patrol. Fireman
Bryan responded and the drunken man was taken to jail, where he spent
the night.

MRS. ELIZA MOUNTFORD

DIED SATURDAY AT HER HOME ON FENTON STREET.

She Was Born at Langton, England,
And Had Resided in the City
Since 1873.

Mrs. Eliza Mountford died at her home on Fenton street Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock from heart trouble and asthma from which she has been suffering for some time.

Deceased was aged 57 years and was born at Langton, England. She came to this city in 1873 and in 1874
was married to William Mountford, of this city, and has resided here ever since. Four children were born to bless the union: William R., deceased;
Joseph S., Edwin H. and John S., all
of whom survive her.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and will be in charge of White Rose Lodge No.
25, Daughters of St. George, of which she was a member, and interment will

Her husband, William Mountford, has been dead for three years.

Controlling the Drink Traffic In the New Century.

(Copyright 1900' The Christian Herald.)

The End of Saloon Power.

[By William Wardell.]

I am not anticipating reforms in the liquor traffic in the new century, and am not interested in its control in this century or the next. I am striving only to outlaw and destroy it. However difficult and remote this may seem, it is at least possible, but the traffic has come to have such power over political parties, over legislation and public opinion, that control in any large sense is, in my judgment, absolutely and definitely impossible.

Does any one doubt this? Let him test it by making an effort this winter to reform, in the interests of decency and all that pertains to public morals, the vilest combination of saloon and house of ill-fame ever legalized or tolerated in this state, the Raines Law Hotel. Call a public meeting for this purpose; a few reformers and "fanatics" will attend, but not a single business man or representative citizen will be present. The meeting will pass resolutions to be presented to the legislature, a committee of which will grant him a hearing and proceed promptly and with scant courtesy to "turn him down," and rightly, as he can bring no evidence of public sentiment in favor of such reform. Test it by seeking to close one saloon or to curtail its influence and power, and he will find the whole traffic solidly united to defeat him, and the traffic will succeed.

After a few experiences of this kind he will, I am sure, become convinced that to destroy is more feasible and possible than to control, and will not waste time and energy in useless efforts.

And why should not the liquor traffic be destroyed? Why should the saloon be permitted to exist? Is it not absolutely a bad thing, debasing and ruining the individual, wrecking homes and spreading misery wherever its influence extends?

Prof. Landois, one of the most eminent German physiologists, whose works are all translated into all languages, and now used in every school of medicine, in his latest edition of 1899 says:

"Alcohol acts in small quantities as a stimulant, in larger quantities as over stimulant, thereby paralyzing the nervous system. Through the former, it is capable of exciting the energies of the body through a short illness, but in every instance it causes a loss through later relaxation of all the muscles."

The highest authority in this country, the United States supreme court, condemns this traffic, as shown in the following quotations from its decisions.

"Nor can we ignore the fact established by statistics accessible to every one, that the disorder, pauperism and crime prevalent in the country are in large measure directly traceable to this evil." Again, its "use as a beverage is hurtful to society and to every member of it, and is therefore a business in which no one may lawfully engage in any way."

We enter upon the new century with renewed hope, and with an unwavering faith in the triumph of right, and therefore the ultimate destruction of this cure in our own and other lands.

Suppression Better Than Control.

[By Dr. Isaac K. Funk.]

The liquor traffic never gave us so much crime and so much misery as today. In 1840 the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the United States was three and a half gallons per capita; in 1860 five gallons; in 1883, nine gallons; last year, sixteen gallons. As M. Thiers said to the ministry of Napoleon, we say to the liquor traffic: "You are committing every possible crime." There is in the air today the prelude of a mighty change in all that pertains to social welfare.

What shall be the plan of campaign against this evil for the coming century? Prohibition absolute. The saloon is a murderer, and "no murderer hath eternal life." It must die. There can be no compromise with murder. Use tact? Yes. Conquer by replacing? Yes. But never by any kind of compromise.

We should not continue the serious mistake that has been made in attempting restriction along permissive lines. Restriction should be along prohibitive lines. If we are ready to close saloons on Sunday, and at midnight, and on election days, let us say henceforth, "Any man who sells liquor on Sunday, or after midnight, or on election days, shall be punished." Heretofore we have said: "A man can have the privilege to sell liquor except on Sunday, etc."

The license system must end. The Raines law has brought into our New York state and municipal treasuries, in the last five years, $60,788,856, and the result is a carnival of crime such as we have never known before in the city of New York. For the first time in three hundred years we have legalized the right to sell liquor on the Sabbath day. The universe would fall into chaos and the stars be ground to dust if they did not obey the laws of Almighty God. How do we expect to escape when we authorize the violation of the laws of this same God for so much cash in hand? There can be no other policy for the twentieth century than absolute, unconditional prohibition.

The Church Against the Saloon.

[By John G. Woolley.]

The law is the public conscience, and to purge it of the wrong of being accessory to the liquor crime is the greatest question for the twentieth century. An accomplice cannot hope to recover his accomplices. Herein is the strength of the Prohibition party: it has come out from among the friends and servants of the liquor traffic. It does not touch the unclean thing. Whether it can force the conscience issue does not yet appear, but it is fit to work at it. The church has declared the true doctrine on the subject substantially in these words: "The liquor traffic can never be licensed without sin, and no political party is entitled to expect, nor ought to receive the vote of a Christian man, so long as it stands committed to the license policy, or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

Water a Substitute for Alcohol.

[By A. W. Wagnalls.]

I am asked what reforms should the new century bring in the liquor traffic? The occasioning cause of the traffic is for the quenching of a great, intensifying thirst. Every victim knows of this. It overrides every obstacle. Thirst implies a fever, a fire in the blood and the real cause of this pernicious fever is in the social evil that exists in almost every home. Space prevents giving corroborate testimony, and the nature of the subject is too repulsive for extensive elaboration.

The present efforts at reform are in the direction of restriction and prohibition. Both are well meant and have my considerate sympathy. For the new century a broader and more general reform by substitution is suggested. Our Indians, who are so close to nature, aptly name alcohol as "fire water." It is this liquid fire our burning victims are using to alleviate their torments. But such adds fury to the flames. The conflagration requires immediate attention; it must be put out. This fire is to be quenched by its elemental opposite—water. How? By the systematic drinking of water. How much? When? A full gallon, every day. What kind? Warm water preferably to hot or cold. By whom? Every one. Toper as well as abstainer. Physicians are beginning to recognize the great value of the daily systematic drinking of water in large quantities by the sick as well as those in health. Every one needs to learn that by thus daily flushing every organ, limb, nook and cranny of the body, health, clear brain and longer life are sure to follow.

This method, however, is for the more immediate effect; the relatively temporary quenching of the fire. Water alone will not do all. The sour grapes our fathers will continue to eat, unless there is a complete reformation through right thinking and right conduct. The pulpit will need teach the dynamic law of thought, as affecting the soul and body. This law operates absolutely, minutely and inevitably. It accounts for the not-to-be-named abominations practiced by our parents, the fruits of which are the saloon and the brothel with all their train of evils. In short, the reforms that the new century should bring in the liquor traffic are:

First, restriction by substitution, warm water drinking; and second, and above all things else in the list, prohibition by self-enforcing law; third, dynamic spiritual thinking and actions to correspond—these mean success.

Controlling the Drink Traffic In the New Century.

(Copyright 1900 The Christian Herald.)

The End of Saloon Power. [By William Wardell.]

I am not anticipating reforms in the liquor traffic in the new century, and am not interested in its control in this century or the next. I am striving only to outlaw and destroy it. However difficult and remote this may seem, it is at least possible, but the traffic has come to have such power over political parties, over legislation and public opinion, that control in any large sense is, in my judgment, absolutely and definitely impossible.

Does any one doubt this? Let him test it by making an effort this winter to reform, in the interests of decency and all that pertains to public morals, the vilest combination of saloon and house of ill-fame ever legalized or tolerated in this state, the Raines Law Hotel. Call a public meeting for this purpose; a few reformers and "fanatics" will attend, but not a single business man or representative citizen will be present. The meeting will pass resolutions to be presented to the legislature, a committee of which will grant him a hearing and proceed promptly and with scant courtesy to "turn him down," and rightly, as he can bring no evidence of public sentiment in favor of such reform. Test it by seeking to close one saloon or to curtail its influence and power, and he will find the whole traffic solidly united to defeat him, and the traffic will succeed.

After a few experiences of this kind he will, I am sure, become convinced that to destroy is more feasible and possible than to control, and will not waste time and energy in useless efforts.

And why should not the liquor traffic be destroyed? Why should the saloon be permitted to exist? Is it not absolutely a bad thing, debasing and ruining the individual, wrecking homes and spreading misery wherever its influence extends?

Prof. Landois, one of the most eminent German physiologists, whose works are all translated into all languages, and now used in every school of medicine, in his latest edition of 1899 says:

"Alcohol acts in small quantities as a stimulant, in larger quantities as over stimulant, thereby paralyzing the nervous system. Through the former, it is capable of exciting the energies of the body through a short illness, but in every instance it causes a loss through later relaxation of all the muscles."

The highest authority in this country, the United States supreme court, condemns this traffic, as shown in the following quotations from its decisions.

"Nor can we ignore the fact established by statistics accessible to every one, that the disorder, pauperism and crime prevalent in the country are in large measure directly traceable to this evil." Again, its "use as a beverage is hurtful to society and to every member of it, and is therefore a business in which no one may lawfully engage in any way."

We enter upon the new century with renewed hope, and with an unwavering faith in the triumph of right, and therefore the ultimate destruction of this cure in our own and other lands.

Suppression Better Than Control. [By Dr. Isaac K. Funk.]

The liquor traffic never gave us so much crime and so much misery as today. In 1840 the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the United States was three and a half gallons per capita; in 1860 five gallons; in 1883, nine gallons; last year, sixteen gallons. As M. Thiers said to the ministry of Napoleon, we say to the liquor traffic: "You are committing every possible crime." There is in the air today the prelude of a mighty change in all that pertains to social welfare.

What shall be the plan of campaign against this evil for the coming century? Prohibition absolute. The saloon is a murderer, and "no murderer hath eternal life." It must die. There can be no compromise with murder. Use tact? Yes. Conquer by replacing? Yes. But never by any kind of compromise.

We should not continue the serious mistake that has been made in attempting restriction along permissive lines. Restriction should be along prohibitive lines. If we are ready to close saloons on Sunday, and at midnight, and on election days, let us say henceforth, "Any man who sells liquor on Sunday, or after midnight, or on election days, shall be punished." Heretofore we have said: "A man can have the privilege to sell liquor except on Sunday, etc."

The license system must end. The Raines law has brought into our New York state and municipal treasuries, in the last five years, $60,788,856, and the result is a carnival of crime such as we have never known before in the city of New York. For the first time in three hundred years we have legalized the right to sell liquor on the Sabbath day. The universe would fall into chaos and the stars be ground to dust if they did not obey the laws of Almighty God. How do we expect to escape when we authorize the violation of the laws of this same God for so much cash in hand? There can be no other policy for the twentieth century than absolute, unconditional prohibition.

The Church Against the Saloon. [By John G. Woolley.]

The law is the public conscience, and to purge it of the wrong of being accessory to the liquor crime is the greatest question for the twentieth century. An accomplice cannot hope to recover his accomplices. Herein is the strength of the Prohibition party: it has come out from among the friends and servants of the liquor traffic. It does not touch the unclean thing. Whether it can force the conscience issue does not yet appear, but it is fit to work at it. The church has declared the true doctrine on the subject substantially in these words: "The liquor traffic can never be licensed without sin, and no political party is entitled to expect, nor ought to receive the vote of a Christian man, so long as it stands committed to the license policy, or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

Water a Substitute for Alcohol. [By A. W. Wagnalls.]

I am asked what reforms should the new century bring in the liquor traffic? The occasioning cause of the traffic is for the quenching of a great, intensifying thirst. Every victim knows of this. It overrides every obstacle. Thirst implies a fever, a fire in the blood and the real cause of this pernicious fever is in the social evil that exists in almost every home. Space prevents giving corroborate testimony, and the nature of the subject is too repulsive for extensive elaboration.

The present efforts at reform are in the direction of restriction and prohibition. Both are well meant and have my considerate sympathy. For the new century a broader and more general reform by substitution is suggested. Our Indians, who are so close to nature, aptly name alcohol as "fire water." It is this liquid fire our burning victims are using to alleviate their torments. But such adds fury to the flames. The conflagration requires immediate attention; it must be put out. This fire is to be quenched by its elemental opposite—water. How? By the systematic drinking of water. How much? When? A full gallon, every day. What kind? Warm water preferably to hot or cold. By whom? Every one. Toper as well as abstainer. Physicians are beginning to recognize the great value of the daily systematic drinking of water in large quantities by the sick as well as those in health. Every one needs to learn that by thus daily flushing every organ, limb, nook and cranny of the body, health, clear brain and longer life are sure to follow.

This method, however, is for the more immediate effect; the relatively temporary quenching of the fire. Water alone will not do all. The sour grapes our fathers will continue to eat, unless there is a complete reformation through right thinking and right conduct. The pulpit will need teach the dynamic law of thought, as affecting the soul and body. This law operates absolutely, minutely and inevitably. It accounts for the not-to-be-named abominations practiced by our parents, the fruits of which are the saloon and the brothel with all their train of evils. In short, the reforms that the new century should bring in the liquor traffic are:

First, restriction by substitution, warm water drinking; and second, and above all things else in the list, prohibition by self-enforcing law; third, dynamic spiritual thinking and actions to correspond—these mean success.

THE NEWS REVIEW.

REV. N. M. CROWE

DELIVERED AN ELOQUENT SERMON YESTERDAY MORNING.

He Reviewed the Century And Spoke of the Wonderful Progress Made.

At the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. N. M. Crowe, preached a sermon appropriate to the closing of the century, his text being John 4:38, "Other men labored and ye are entered into their labors."

He directed attention to the gratitude we owe to those who have preceded us in laying the foundation for our present progress and development. Washington was great in his day, but were he to come upon our sphere of action now, he would be amazed at the growth of the ideas which he introduced. Lincoln advanced ideas which have been carried into effect far beyond his fondest hopes.

The pinnacle of privilege is occupied by the people of American because of the peculiar blessings God has enabled us to enjoy. The present century has been the one of the greatest development. Great responsibilities come with enlarged opportunities and much is expected of God's people. A spirit filled life is needed. The principles of Christianity have governed the actions of the people of the United States more largely, and because of this God has blessed this nation to a wonderful degree, but we have only been able to come to and hold this position so far as we have followed the leading of God's spirit.

At the close of the morning sermon five new members united with the church.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Pastor of This Church Was Unable to Preach at the Sunday Morning Service.

Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, was ill on Sunday morning; and, after a brief explanation to the congregation, he introduced Rev. Will Huff, who very acceptably addressed the large audience present. The theme of the young man's sermon was the life and character of Christ, and he claims that, while we cannot reach the heights and depths of Christ's life and actions in quantity, we may possess the same essential features to salvation in quality. In other words, that we have the right to take Jesus as our leader and exemplar, and follow in his footsteps just as closely as it is possible for fallen humanity to do.

Rev. Huff again preached in the evening to a large audience, taking as his subject First John, third chapter, second and third verses: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure."

The sermon was along the line of our right to possess sanctification, holiness, or full salvation, and teemed with plain and practical truths, taken direct from God's book of books and given to those present for thoughtful consideration and digestion. Young Huff has made wonderful advancement in his ministerial life since last we heard him; and, under the blessing of God, he is destined to do great good in our Master's harvest field.

The revival services will open at 9 o'clock tonight, and will continue until midnight, when the old year will be given a fond good-bye and the new year will receive a warm welcome, with the prayers of the Christians present that God will bless our nation all through the year 1901. You will be welcome.

MAY RECOVER.

William Kelley, Who is Ill at a Cleveland Hospital, is Very Much Better.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Nagle left Saturday afternoon for Cleveland, where they will visit Mrs. Nagle's brother, William Kelley, who is ill at the Lakeside hospital at that place. About three weeks ago Kelley was taken to a hospital at Wheeling, where his friends were told he had consumption and to bring him home, as he would not live over four weeks.

When he arrived at Cleveland he was told he was not suffering from consumption. An operation was performed and he is now greatly improved. It is thought he will recover.

The Dog's Watchfulness.

The dog's watchfulness, so much and so thoughtlessly lauded as the expression of his devotion to man, is merely the instinctive watchfulness necessary to his safety in a wild state and is a characteristic which he would exercise quite as readily for his own kind and the preservation of his lair as he would for the benefit of man. When he barks at strange dogs or gives warning at night of the approach of strangers, it should not be overlooked that he considers his own home is disturbed, though it may be the home of his master. Washington was great in his day, but were he to come upon our sphere of action now, he would be amazed at the growth of the ideas which he introduced. Lincoln advanced ideas which have been carried into effect far beyond his fondest hopes.

The pinnacle of privilege is occupied by the people of America because of the peculiar blessings God has enabled us to enjoy. The present century has been the one of the greatest development. Great responsibilities come with enlarged opportunities and much is expected of God's people. A spirit filled life is needed. The principles of Christianity have governed the actions of the people of the United States more largely, and because of this God has blessed this nation to a wonderful degree, but we have only been able to come to and hold this position so far as we have followed the leading of God's spirit.

At the close of the morning sermon five new members united with the church.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Pastor of This Church Was Unable to Preach at the Sunday Morning Service.

Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, was ill on Sunday morning; and, after a brief explanation to the congregation, he introduced Rev. Will Huff, who very acceptably addressed the large audience present. The theme of the young man's sermon was the life and character of Christ, and he claims that, while we cannot reach the heights and depths of Christ's life and actions in quantity, we may possess the same essential features to salvation in quality. In other words, that we have the right to take Jesus as our leader and exemplar, and follow in his footsteps just as closely as it is possible for fallen humanity to do.

Rev. Huff again preached in the evening to a large audience, taking as his subject First John, third chapter, second and third verses: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure."

The sermon was along the line of our right to possess sanctification, holiness, or full salvation, and teemed with plain and practical truths, taken direct from God's book of books and given to those present for thoughtful consideration and digestion. Young Huff has made wonderful advancement in his ministerial life since last we heard him; and, under the blessing of God, he is destined to do great good in our Master's harvest field.

The revival services will open at 9 o'clock tonight, and will continue until midnight, when the old year will be given a fond good-bye and the new year will receive a warm welcome, with the prayers of the Christians present that God will bless our nation all through the year 1901. You will be welcome.

—Robert Stewart returned to East Palestine Saturday afternoon after a visit with his parents in this city.

MAY RECOVER.

William Kelley, Who is ill at a Cleveland Hospital, is Very Much Better.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Nagle left Saturday afternoon for Cleveland, where they will visit Mrs. Nagle's brother, William Kelley, who is ill at the Lakeside hospital at that place. About three weeks ago Kelley was taken to a hospital at Wheeling, where his friends were told he had consumption and to bring him home, as he would not live over four weeks.

When he arrived at Cleveland he was told he was not suffering from consumption. An operation was performed and he is now greatly improved. It is thought he will recover.

The Dog's Watchfulness.

The dog's watchfulness, so much and so thoughtlessly lauded as the expression of his devotion to man, is merely the instinctive watchfulness necessary to his safety in a wild state and is a characteristic which he would exercise quite as readily for his own kind and the preservation of his lair as he would for the benefit of man. When he barks at strange dogs or gives warning at night of the approach of strangers, it should not be overlooked that he considers his own home is disturbed, though it may be the home of his master. Much depends on the point of view.—B. Waters in Forest and Stream.

GENUINE CHRISTIANITY.

There has come a strong demand for the genuine article on the part of true men and women—that part of humanity which has been undergoing an acute and intense self-examination, and which will not be satisfied with shams and with false prophets; men and women who have studied and are now studying the life and character of Christ, and who have an unspeakable longing to become more Christlike—to take on and retain the likeness and nature of the meek and lowly Nazarene, the God-man, who “spoke as never yet man spake.” This power, that is abroad in such might, spake in unmistakable language to the ministers of the Presbyterian church in their gathering at Cleveland, not long since, when they, as a body of God’s servants and apostles, resolved to go to the Master in heart earnest, in secret, with closed doors, pleading for a revival of genuine Christianity, placing forms and ceremonies and creeds far in the background, and giving such features their proper and secondary position. The ministers of God of all churches, all over the land, are awakening to the full realization of the fact that our Heavenly Father demands that narrowness and bigotry and forms and ceremonies and outside show and glitter shall be cast aside, now and for all time, and that the true leaders of God’s forces shall preach Christ and Him crucified as the one great, essential feature necessary to the salvation of the human race, the world over. Church membership will not save a human soul in time and in eternity; respectability, wealth, honors, place, position, power, all good in their place, when made right and proper use of, will not and cannot save a single human soul. Creatures who depend upon such features, be they ministers or laymen, occupying pulpit or pew, are clutching at straws and building upon an insecure and false foundation. The word of God says that all such are just as surely barred from the happiness of Heaven and the glory of the presence of the Lord as are the unrepentant drunkards, debauchees and murderers of the land. God have mercy upon those who are depending upon their church membership, their morality, their respectability and position in society for their soul’s salvation. The Pharisees of old depended upon these same human characteristics, and Jesus condemned them in unstinted and unmistakable terms. What then? The cry is resounding throughout the land: “Men and brethren, what shall we do to be saved?” And the answer comes back, founded on the Rock—built on the very word of our God: “Believe on the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” The precious promise does not say “may be saved.” Oh, no! It says “thou shalt be saved.” There are no “ifs” and “ands.” It is the solid, bedrock, unimpeachable, unmistakable truth and promise: “Thou shalt be saved.” And this belief in “Christ and Him crucified” is growing apace in this nation, at this time. And of a truth it is sadly needed, in pulpit and pew, and in the nation at large, as vice and drunkenness and crime have been holding high carnival as the ministers of many, very many of our churches, have depended upon lectures, and science, and operatic singing, and operatic music, and sensational preaching, to draw crowds to places designated as “the church of God.” God grant that the opening up of the Twentieth century may result in the demolition and destruction of all false doctrines and isms as connected with the true church of God, and that leaders and people shall unite in the one grand and glorious ultimatum of preaching, in thought, word and action, “Christ and Him crucified.”

A PORTER’S MISTAKE.

The Story of a Lady’s Frizzes and an Actor’s Rage.

As the porter passed through the car she called him aside. There was a whisper and a gleam of silver.

“Now, remember they are in the yellow satchel.”

“Can’t miss dem, ma’am.”

“You won’t let any one see you?”

“No, ma’am.”

“The major is sitting in that car.”

“He won’t see me, ma’am.”

“Well, here is the key.”

The porter took the key and passed through to the next car.

“Guess dis am it,” he said, slipping the thin key in the lock of a yellow satchel. He put his hand in the satchel and pulled out a bunch of hair. Then he relocked the satchel.

“Heah’s yo’ frizzes, ma’am!”

“Don’t speak so loud.”

“Anything else, ma’am?”

“That’s all. I believe. I just have a minute to put these on before dinner.”

The porter reached the platform in time to meet an irate tragedian.

“Not a step!” he thundered in tones that almost lifted the porter’s cap.

“What have you done with my whiskers, boy?”

“Your whiskers, sah?”

“Yes; my false beard. The passengers say you opened my satchel with a skeleton key. Where are those whiskers?”

“Laws,” muttered the porter, “Ah went in de wrong satchel!”

Just then a lady passed toward the dining car.

“Dah’s yo’ whiskers, sah,” grinned the porter, “on top ob dat lady’s haid!”

An Expelled M. P.’s Prayer.

During the first half of the eighteenth century one of the members for a southern constituency was expelled from the house of commons for forgery and indeed endured the purgatory of standing in the pillory for a day. He was a man of unctuous piety, and his career in many respects resembled that of Jabez Balfour in later days. After his death the following prayer was found in his own handwriting among his papers:

“O Lord, thou knowest that I have nine houses in the city of London and that I have lately purchased an estate in fee simple in the county of Essex. I beseech thee to preserve the two counties of Middlesex and Essex from fire and earthquake, and as I have a mortgage in Herefordshire I beg of thee to have an eye of compassion also on that county, and for the rest of the counties thou mayest deal with them as thou art pleased. Give a prosperous voyage to the Mermaid, because I have not insured her, and enable the bank to meet their bills.”—St. James Gazette.

“That’s all, I believe. I just have a minute to put these on before dinner.”

The porter reached the platform in time to meet an irate tragedian.

“Not a step!” he thundered in tones that almost lifted the porter’s cap. “What have you done with my whiskers, boy?”

“Your whiskers, sah?”

“Yes; my false beard. The passengers say you opened my satchel with a skeleton key. Where are those whiskers?”

“Laws,” muttered the porter, “Ah went in de wrong satchel!”

Just then a lady passed toward the dining car.

An Expelled M. P.’s Prayer.

During the first half of the eighteenth century one of the members for a southern constituency was expelled from the house of commons for forgery and indeed endured the purgatory of standing in the pillory for a day. He was a man of unctuous piety, and his career in many respects resembled that of Jabez Balfour in later days. After his death the following prayer was found in his own handwriting among his papers:

“O Lord, thou knowest that I have nine houses in the city of London and that I have lately purchased an estate in fee simple in the county of Essex. I beseech thee to preserve the two counties of Middlesex and Essex from fire and earthquake, and as I have a mortgage in Herefordshire I beg of thee to have an eye of compassion also on that county, and for the rest of the counties thou mayest deal with them as thou art pleased. Give a prosperous voyage to the Mermaid, because I have not insured her, and enable the bank to meet their bills.”—St. James Gazette.

Don’t Be Slow.

If a child is “slow” around home and takes an hour to dress when only a quarter of that time is necessary, it is a bad habit. The “slow” men and women are those who fail to make a success of life. How often you see grown people tinker about something a half a day that could be done in an hour! They learned the habit as children.—Atchison Globe.

Our Little Sticks.

Ages ago the Hindoo “medicine man” knew all about disease germs and microbes, although he was jeered at by western scientists because he called them “little worms.” And after all when we moderns “discovered” what he had known all along we could find no better name for the new organisms than bacilli, which, being interpreted, is “little sticks.”

How Li "Worked" Two Machines.

With a seeming innocence that would have done justice to Ah Sin, the Hea-then Chinese, Li Hung Chang appeared to display the greatest interest in the sewing machines at an exhibition in Edinburgh he visited when in Great Britain several years ago.

His excellency's first question was how long it would take for the sewing machine at which he had sat down to do a certain distance—seemingly confusing the mechanical stitcher with a lady's safety at the next stand.

Without waiting for any reply to his query or further ceremony Li started sewing a little seam. Nor did he do it badly, a fact which made him seem delighted as a child. For some time the viceroy continued his hemming and, though got away at length by his attendants, immediately sat down at the next machine and insisted on working it.

"What is the price?" asked Li at length.

"Your excellency shall have it as a gift," was the reply of the exhibitors.

"Then I don't want it in that case," observed the simple and bland Li, "because I require two, one for myself and the other for the empress."

And he had them.

How Li "Worked" Two Machines.

With a seeming innocence that would have done justice to Ah Sin, the Hea-then Chinese, Li Hung Chang appeared to display the greatest interest in the sewing machines at an exhibition in Edinburgh he visited when in Great Britain several years ago.

His excellency's first question was how long it would take for the sewing machine at which he had sat down to do a certain distance—seemingly confusing the mechanical stitcher with a lady's safety at the next stand.

Without waiting for any reply to his query or further ceremony Li started sewing a little seam. Nor did he do it badly, a fact which made him seem delighted as a child. For some time the viceroy continued his hemming and, though got away at length by his attendants, immediately sat down at the next machine and insisted on working it.

"What is the price?" asked Li at length.

"Your excellency shall have it as a gift," was the reply of the exhibitors.

"Then I don't want it in that case," observed the simple and bland Li, "because I require two, one for myself and the other for the empress."

And he had them.

WASHBURN JOINS QUAY

He Receives Fierce Condemnation From the Democrats.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Guffey Characterizes a Statement Given Out by Washburn as Falsehood to Cover His Own Perfidy—Quay People Jubilant. Gives Them Senate Organization.

Harrisburg, Dec. 31.—Senator Washburn, of Crawford county, who was elected two years ago as a Populist, with Democratic and Prohibition endorsements, issued a formal statement announcing that he had allied himself with the Republican party and shall participate in its councils and organization. Mr. Washburn voted with the Democracy at the last session for George A. Jenks for United States senator and took part in its councils and voted for all party measures. His statement follows:

"I was elected two years ago as a Populist, receiving the support of the Prohibitionists and a larger share of the Democratic voters in my district. Hoping to secure results along reform lines, I co-operated with the Democrats during the last session, but was disappointed in the outcome. The Democrats of the state have seemed to be more intent upon partisan and personal advantage than in a desire to co-operate with all other forces to secure needed legislation. The example of the national Democratic convention in refusing to endorse Towne because he was not an old-line Democrat is an illustration of the spirit which has largely prevailed among Democratic leaders in this commonwealth; nor has the insurgent Republicans shown any desire to co-operate for any other purpose except personal or partisan gain for themselves. The dispute into which the regular Republican organization was brought previous to 1898 was caused by the scandals and corruption of which the members of the Pittsburg and Philadelphia political rings were guilty. It was not Quay as much as the unscrupulous work of his followers in the two cities that precipitated the factional fight in the Republican party. Now the members of those rings, who are the real culprits the people ought to punish have raised a cry for 'reform,' and under cover of opposition to Quay cunningly seek to profit by the reaction against their party that their own misdeeds have brought about.

"Since the last election I have considered most of the issues fought out during that campaign as permanently settled, and while I do not regret my support of Mr. Bryan under the circumstances, I believe that the tremendous popular majority given to the Republican administration takes out of the realm of practical consideration most of the problems then discussed. Desiring to be a co-operator rather than a fault finder, recognizing that the People's party in Pennsylvania is extinct as a state organization, and that the overwhelming majority of the people of this commonwealth desire an instant cessation of the factional strife that has for years corrupted the politics and prevented the proper administration of the affairs of the state, I shall henceforth ally myself with the Republican party. In this course I believe I shall be upheld by the majority of the people, both in my district and throughout the country. Neither the Democratic organization, controlled by the Standard Oil influence, nor the insurgent organization, whose leaders have been unequalled in corruption since the days of Tweed, attracts me, and in the future, following the example of United States Senators Stewart and Kyle, and of other equally prominent leaders who have been active in their efforts for better government, I shall work for all those better conditions in politics which sincere Democrats and all good citizens desire, and shall strive earnestly as a Republican for high ideals within the party and the right settlement of the intricate problems that confront the national and state administrations.

"In allying myself with the Republican party I shall participate in its councils and organization."

Mr. Washburn's declaration created much surprise, as he was counted on by the Democrats to vote with them on the organization of the senate and the party nominee for United States senator. His desertion gives the friends of Colonel M. S. Quay control of the senate and practically insures the election of William F. Snyder, of Chester, as president pro tem.

Colonel Quay's opponents still insisted that the former senator will not be elected and that the anti-Quay

Republicans and Democrats will control the organization of the house. Senator William Flinn, of Allegheny, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in Western Pennsylvania, said last night that the defeat of Quay for senator and William T. Marshall for speaker was absolutely assured. Colonel James M. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, the Democratic leader, in a statement last night, said:

"At a meeting of the house Democrats tomorrow morning (meaning Monday morning) a committee will be appointed to meet a like committee of Independent Republicans to go over the question of a fusion organization of the house. My information is that if the independent Republicans have sufficient votes to accomplish it, that the Democrats will be unanimous for a fusion organization on a fair and equitable basis."

Mr. Marshall said positively that the stalwart Republicans will organize the house and that he will be elected speaker. Colonel Quay's friends were jubilant over the accession of Senator Washburn, and professed to be absolutely confident of his election. A caucus of the anti-Quay Republicans will be held today to formulate a plan for fusion with the Democrats on the organization of the house. A candidate for United States senator may also be chosen. The stalwart Republicans of the senate and house will hold caucuses this evening to select officers and employees and on tomorrow evening to formally nominate Colonel Quay for senator.

Senator C. L. Magee, of Allegheny, who has been under the treatment of a Philadelphia specialist since the close of the last legislature, came to Harrisburg Sunday to attend the session. Mr. Magee said he is gradually regaining his health and that he will take his seat in the senate on Tuesday. He has leased a house in Harrisburg and expected to stay here during the session with his family.

A meeting of the 30 Democratic senators and members in the city was held last night to take action on the desertion of Senator Washburn. A committee of three was appointed to wait upon the senator and another committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions against him.

The resolutions committee reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Democratic members of the general assembly that the reasons given for his proposed action of affiliating with the corrupt Quay machine but thinly disguised his disgraceful conduct in proving recreant to the trust reposed in him by the Democratic voters and good citizens of his district.

Resolved, That it has been more than a generation since our state was brought into like shame and disrepute by the bad faith and recreant conduct of three members of the assembly, who, disregarding their duty to their constituents, their fealty to their party and their obligations to the people of their districts to represent honorably and faithfully the trust reposed in them, and whose names have become a reproach and a by-word throughout the state as faithless legislators.

Resolved, That while we recognize the right of a member of the general assembly to vote his convictions on questions of economical and party policies, we condemn the action of Senator Washburn in allying himself with the Quay machine, which he has so frequently and earnestly denounced in the past, when the result of his course must inevitably lead, if successful, to again place in position and power the worst and most servile elements of the Republican party.

Colonel Guffey was asked after the Democratic meeting what he had to say regarding Washburn's declaration that the Democratic organization was controlled by Standard Oil influence. He said:

"It is not worthy of notice. A falsehood to cover his own perfidy."

The friends of Senator Quay claimed several gains during Sunday. The insurgents say they have lost no votes and have gained several. Each side gives the names of the recruits. The regulars give out the names of Senator John F. Budke, of Beaver-Washington district, in addition to Senator O. E. Washburn, of Crawford. The insurgents offset this with Representative Thomas J. Reynolds, of Lackawanna, and John P. Emery, of Venango, both of whom, they say, are on the Quay list. Emery and Reynolds attended the anti-Quay caucus last night and made speeches defining their position as irrevocably opposed to the machine on all questions.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE MAY STAND.

Chairman Johnson Says It Is Organized Until 1904.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee, who has passed through

Kansas City en route from Chicago to his home in Kansas, said:

"I am not in a position to say what will be done toward maintaining the Democratic organization perfected during the last campaign, but I will say that there will be no reorganization of the national committee. The committee is organized until 1904 and will remain as it is until that time. I believe that the present precinct organization can be maintained and made entirely self-supporting."

CAPTURED BY BOERS.

Took Strong British Position—English Had About 50 Killed and a Number Taken Prisoner.

London, Dec. 31.—The war office received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener:

MAD DOG FINALLY KILLED.

It Had Bitten a Man and About Twenty Dogs.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—After biting 20 dogs and a man a mad dog in this place was finally killed. The animal ran through the streets snapping at everything in sight. Policeman Frank McCormick started after the dog. It ran out Pittsburg street, and at the corner of Pittsburg and Fayette streets met Boone Pierce, a son of Red Cloud, the Indian chief, who lives in a tent on the crest of Chestnut ridge, jumped on him and tore a large chunk of flesh from his leg.

His screams brought a crowd, which immediately joined itself to the crowd headed by McCormick. Most of the mob was well armed, and as they ran they fired at the fleeing animal. The dog was finally shot.

B. & O. May Secure an Island.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—A movement is on foot at this place by which the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will become owners of Mus island, in the Youghiogheny river at this place. It is owned by the Hogg heirs, and lies next to the tract of land already owned by the Baltimore and Ohio. The millrace for the Calhoun & Co.'s planing mill runs between the mainland and the island. It is thought that the railroad will erect new shops on this tract at once, using the water power from the river.

SPOKE TO Y. M. C. A.

Gov. Roosevelt Delivered Address In New York.

READ ALOUD AT OVER 100 MEETINGS

Copies of the Speech Had Been Sent Out In Advance to Other Associations Throughout the Country—Robert Speer, a Presbyterian Official, Also Spoke.

New York, Dec. 31.—Governor Roosevelt spoke Sunday afternoon at Carnegie hall before an audience of young men that completely filled the house. It was a mass meeting arranged by the Young Men's Christian association, of this city, but it was somewhat unique in the fact that the chief speaker was in a way addressing more than a hundred other audiences throughout the country. It had been arranged so that copies of Governor Roosevelt's address had been secured in advance, and sent to secretaries of associations throughout the country and it was said that the address was read aloud at more than a hundred other meetings at the same hour.

William E. Dodge presided, and among those on the platform were General O. O. Howard, General John R. Brooke and various officers from the harbor forts and the navy yard. There were also more than a hundred blue jackets and soldiers present, most of whom are members of the army and navy branch of the association. The New York festival chorus had elevated seats on the platform, and, conducted by Mr. Morgan, the director, rendered musical selections.

Mr. Dodge spoke briefly on the history of the Young Men's Christian association, and then eulogized Colonel Roosevelt in the various capacities in which he is known to the public. The vice president-elect was received with prolonged applause.

Robert E. Speer, lay secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, made the concluding address.

REV. GARVEY HONORED.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 31.—Rev. E. A. Garvey, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, Pittston, and vicar general of Scranton diocese, was invested with the title of monsignor by Bishop Hoban Sunday morning. The services were held in St. John's church and were very imposing. The bishop was assisted in the services by a large number of clergy.

Monsignor Garvey was formerly rector of St. Mary's church at Williamsport, and when Bishop O'Hara, of the Scranton diocese, died his name was one of the three sent to Rome to fill the vacancy. Rev. H. J. Hoban, however, was named for the place. Rev. Garvey was then transferred from Williamsport to Pittston and made vicar general of the diocese. Some months ago the pope named him as a domestic prelate, with the title of monsignor.

WASHBURN JOINS QUAY

He Receives Fierce Condemnation From the Democrats.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Guffey Characterizes a Statement Given Out by Washburn as Falsehood to Cover His Own Perfidy—Quay People Jubilant. Gives Them Senate Organization.

Harrisburg, Dec. 31.—Senator Washburn, of Crawford county, who was elected two years ago as a Populist, with Democratic and Prohibition endorsements, issued a formal statement announcing that he had allied himself with the Republican party and shall participate in its councils and organization. Mr. Washburn voted with the Democracy at the last session for George A. Jenks for United States senator and took part in its councils and voted for all party measures. His statement follows:

"I was elected two years ago as a Populist, receiving the support of the Prohibitionists and a larger share of the Democratic voters in my district. Hoping to secure results along reform lines, I co-operated with the Democrats during the last session, but was disappointed in the outcome. The Democrats of the state have seemed to be more intent upon partisan and personal advantage than in a desire to co-operate with all other forces to secure needed legislation. The example of the national Democratic convention in refusing to endorse Towne because he was not an old-line Democrat is an illustration of the spirit which has largely prevailed among Democratic leaders in this Commonwealth; nor has the insurgent Republicans shown any desire to co-operate for any other purpose except personal or partisan gain for themselves. The cleavage into which the regular Republican organization was brought previous to 1898 was caused by the scandals and corruption of which the members of the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia political rings were guilty. It was not Quay as much as the unscrupulous work of his followers in the two cities that precipitated the factional fight in the Republican party. Now the members of those rings, who are the real culprits the people ought to punish have raised a cry for 'reform,' and under cover of opposition to Quay cunningly seek to profit by the reaction against their party that their own misdeeds have brought about.

"Since the last election I have considered most of the issues fought out during that campaign as permanently settled, and while I do not regret my support of Mr. Bryan under the circumstances, I believe that the tremendous popular majority given to the Republican administration takes out of the realm of practical consideration most of the problems then discussed. Desiring to be a co-operator rather than a fault-finder, recognizing that the People's party in Pennsylvania is extinct as a state organization, and that the overwhelming majority of the people of this Commonwealth desire an instant cessation of the factional strife that has for years corrupted the politics and prevented the proper administration of the affairs of the state, I shall henceforth ally myself with the Republican party. In this course I believe I shall be upheld by the majority of the people, both in my district and throughout the country. Neither the Democratic organization, controlled by the Standard Oil influence, nor the insurgent organization, whose leaders have been unequalled in corruption since the days of Freed, attracts me, and in the future, following the example of United States Senators Stewart and Kyle, and of other equally prominent leaders who have been active in their efforts for better government, I shall work for all those better conditions in politics which sincere Democrats and all good citizens desire, and shall strive earnestly as a Republican for high ideals within the party and the right settlement of the intricate problems that confront the national and state administrations.

"In allying myself with the Republican party I shall participate in its councils and organization."

Mr. Washburn's declaration created much surprise, as he was counted on by the Democrats to vote with them on the organization of the senate and the party nominee for United States senator. His desertion gives the friends of Colonel M. S. Quay control of the senate and practically insures the election of William E. Snyder, of Chester, as president pro tem.

Colonel Quay's opponents still insisted that the former senator will not be elected and that the anti-Quay

Republicans and Democrats will control the organization of the house. Senator William Flinn, of Allegheny, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in Western Pennsylvania, said last night that the defeat of Quay for senator and William T. Marshall for speaker was absolutely assured. Colonel James M. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, the Democratic leader, in a statement last night, said:

"At a meeting of the house Democrats tomorrow morning (meaning Monday morning) a committee will be appointed to meet a like committee of independent Republicans to go over the question of a fusion organization of the house. My information is that if the independent Republicans have sufficient votes to accomplish it, that the Democrats will be unanimous for a fusion organization on a fair and equitable basis."

Mr. Marshall said positively that the stalwart Republicans will organize the house and that he will be elected speaker. Colonel Quay's friends were jubilant over the accession of Senator Washburn, and professed to be absolutely confident of his election. A caucus of the anti-Quay Republicans will be held today to formulate a plan for fusion with the Democrats on the organization of the house. A candidate for United States senator may also be chosen. The stalwart Republicans of the senate and house will hold caucuses this evening to select officers and employees and on tomorrow evening to formally nominate Colonel Quay for senator.

Senator C. L. Magee, of Allegheny, who has been under the treatment of a Philadelphia specialist since the close of the last legislature, came to Harrisburg Sunday to attend the session. Mr. Magee said he is gradually regaining his health and that he will take his seat in the senate on Tuesday. He has leased a house in Harrisburg and expected to stay here during the session with his family.

A meeting of the 30 Democratic senators and members in the city was held last night to take action on the desertion of Senator Washburn. A committee of three was appointed to wait upon the senator and another committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions against him.

The resolutions committee reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Democratic members of the general assembly that the reasons given for his proposed action of affiliating with the corrupt Quay machine but thinly disguised his disgraceful conduct in proving recreant to the trust reposed in him by the Democratic voters and good citizens of his district.

Resolved, That it has been more than a generation since our state was brought into like shame and disrepute by the bad faith and recreant conduct of three members of the assembly, who, disregarding their duty to their constituents, their fealty to their party and their obligations to the people of their districts to represent honorably and faithfully the trust reposed in them, and whose names have become a reproach and a by-word throughout the state as faithless legislators.

Resolved, That while we recognize the right of a member of the general assembly to vote his convictions on questions of economical and party policies, we condemn the action of Senator Washburn in allying himself with the Quay machine, which he has so frequently and earnestly denounced in the past, when the result of his course must inevitably lead, if successful, to again place in position and power the worst and most servile elements of the Republican party.

Colonel Guffey was asked after the Democratic meeting what he had to say regarding Washburn's declaration that the Democratic organization was controlled by Standard Oil influence. He said:

"It is not worthy of notice. A falsehood to cover his own perfidy."

The friends of Senator Quay claimed several gains during Sunday. The insurgents say they have lost no votes and have gained several. Each side gives the names of the recruits. The regulars give out the names of Senator John F. Budke, of Beaver-Washington district, in addition to Senator O. E. Washburn, of Crawford. The insurgents offset this with Representative Thomas J. Reynolds, of Lackawanna, and John P. Emery, of Venango, both of whom, they say, are on the Quay list. Emery and Reynolds attended the anti-Quay caucus last night and made speeches defining their position as irrevocably opposed to the machine on all questions.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE MAY STAND.

Chairman Johnson Says It Is Organized Until 1904.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee, who has passed through

Kansas City en route from Chicago to his home in Kansas, said:

"I am not in a position to say what will be done toward maintaining the Democratic organization perfected during the last campaign, but I will say that there will be no reorganization of the national committee. The committee is organized until 1904 and will remain as it is until that time. I believe that the present precinct organization can be maintained and made entirely self-supporting."

CAPTURED BY BOERS.

Took Strong British Position—English Had About 50 Killed and a Number Taken Prisoner.

London, Dec. 31.—The war office received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener:

"Pretoria, Dec. 30, 7:50 a. m.—General Lytton reports that our post at Helvetia was captured yesterday morning by the Boers. About 50 were killed and wounded and 200 taken prisoners.

"Colonel Kitchener reports that he is following with a small force in the tracks of the enemy. Helvetia being recaptured by Reeves, who has been reinforced from Belfast.

"Helvetia was a very strong position on the Machadodorp-Lydenburg railway and was held by a detachment of the Liverpool regiment. Am asking for further information."

MAD DOG FINALLY KILLED.

It Had Bitten a Man and About Twenty Dogs.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—After biting 20 dogs and a man a mad dog in this place was finally killed. The animal ran through the streets snapping at everything in sight. Policeman Frank McCormick started after the dog. It ran out Pittsburgh street, and at the corner of Pittsburgh and Fayette streets met Boone Pierce, a son of Red Cloud, the Indian chief, who lives in a tent on the crest of Chestnut ridge, jumped on him and tore a large chunk of flesh from his leg.

His screams brought a crowd, which immediately joined itself to the crowd headed by McCormick. Most of the mob was well armed, and as they ran they fired at the fleeing animal. The dog was finally shot.

B. & O. May Secure an Island.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—A movement is on foot at this place by which the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will become owners of Mus Island, in the Youghiogheny river at this place. It is owned by the Hogg heirs, and lies next to the tract of land already owned by the Baltimore and Ohio. The millrace for the Calhoun & Co's planing mill runs between the mainland and the island. It is thought that the railroad will erect new shops on this tract at once, using the water power from the river.

SPOKE TO Y. M. C. A.

Gov. Roosevelt Delivered Address In New York.

READ ALOUD AT OVER 100 MEETINGS

Copies of the Speech Had Been Sent Out In Advance to Other Associations Throughout the Country—Robert Speer, a Presbyterian Official, Also Spoke.

New York, Dec. 31.—Governor Roosevelt spoke Sunday afternoon at Carnegie hall before an audience of young men that completely filled the house. It was a mass meeting arranged by the Young Men's Christian association, of this city, but it was somewhat unique in the fact that the chief speaker was in a way addressing more than a hundred other audiences throughout the country. It had been arranged so that copies of Governor Roosevelt's address had been secured in advance, and sent to secretaries of associations throughout the country and it was said that the address was read aloud at more than a hundred other meetings at the same hour.

William E. Dodge presided, and among those on the platform were General O. O. Howard, General John R. Brooke and various officers from the harbor forts and the navy yard. There were also more than a hundred blue jackets and soldiers present, most of whom are members of the army and navy branch of the association. The New York festival chorus had elevated seats on the platform, and, conducted by Mr. Morgan, the director, rendered musical selections. Mr. Dodge spoke briefly on the history of the Young Men's Christian association, and then eulogized Colonel Roosevelt in the various capacities in which he is known to the public. The vice president-elect was received with prolonged applause.

Robert E. Speer, lay secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, made the concluding address.

REV. GARVEY HONORED.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 31.—Rev. E. A. Garvey, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, Pittston, and vicar general of Scranton diocese, was invested with the title of monsignor by Bishop Hoban Sunday morning. The services were held in St. John's church and were very imposing. The bishop was assisted in the services by a large number of clergy.

Monsignor Garvey was formerly rector of St. Mary's church at Williamsport, and when Bishop O'Hara, of the Scranton diocese, died his name was one of the three sent to Rome to fill the vacancy. Rev. H. J. Hoban, however, was named for the place. Rev. Garvey was then transferred from Williamsport to Pittston and made vicar general of the diocese. Some months ago the pope named him as a domestic prelate, with the title of monsignor.

stances will she be released from jail until she has practically abandoned their effort to secure her release. Mrs. Nation says if she is released from imprisonment she will demolish saloon furniture in other Kansas cities.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Guffey Characterizes a Statement Given Out by Washburn as Falsehood to Cover His Own Perfidy—Quay People Jubilant. Gives Them Senate Organization.

Harrisburg, Dec. 31.—Senator Washburn, of Crawford county, who was elected two years ago as a Populist, with Democratic and Prohibition endorsements, issued a formal statement announcing that he had allied himself with the Republican party and shall participate in its councils and organization. Mr. Washburn voted with the Democracy at the last session for George A. Jenks for United States senator and took part in its councils and voted for all party measures. His statement follows:

"I was elected two years ago as a Populist, receiving the support of the Prohibitionists and a larger share of the Democratic voters in my district. Hoping to secure results along reform lines, I co-operated with the Democrats during the last session, but was disappointed in the outcome. The Democrats of the state have seemed to be more intent upon partisan and personal advantage than in a desire to co-operate with all other forces to secure needed legislation. The example of the national Democratic convention in refusing to endorse Towne because he was not an old-line Democrat is an illustration of the spirit which has largely prevailed among Democratic leaders in this commonwealth; nor has the insurgent Republicans shown any desire to co-operate for any other purpose except personal or partisan gain for themselves. The dispute into which the regular Republican organization was brought previous to 1898 was caused by the scandals and corruption of which the members of the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia political rings were guilty. It was not Quay as much as the unscrupulous work of his followers in the two cities that precipitated the factional fight in the Republican party. Now the members of those rings, who are the real culprits the people ought to punish have raised a cry for 'reform,' and under cover of opposition to Quay cunningly seek to profit by the reaction against their party that their own misdeeds have brought about.

"Since the last election I have considered most of the issues fought out during that campaign as permanently settled, and while I do not regret my support of Mr. Bryan under the circumstances, I believe that the tremendous popular majority given to the Republican administration takes out of the realm of practical consideration most of the problems then discussed. Desiring to be a co-operator rather than a fault finder, recognizing that the People's party in Pennsylvania is extinct as a state organization, and that the overwhelming majority of the people of this commonwealth desire an instant cessation of the factional strife that has for years corrupted the politics and prevented the proper administration of the affairs of the state, I shall henceforth ally myself with the Republican party. In this course I believe I shall be upheld by the majority of the people, both in my district and throughout the country. Neither the Democratic organization, controlled by the Standard Oil influence, nor the insurgent organization, whose leaders have been unequalled in corruption since the days of Tread, attracts me, and in the future, following the example of United States Senators Stewart and Kyle, and of other equally prominent leaders who have been active in their efforts for better government, I shall work for all those better conditions in politics which sincere Democrats and all good citizens desire, and shall strive earnestly as a Republican for high ideals within the party and the right settlement of the intricate problems that confront the national and state administrations.

"In allying myself with the Republican party I shall participate in its councils and organization."

Mr. Washburn's declaration created much surprise, as he was counted on by the Democrats to vote with them on the organization of the senate and the party nominee for United States senator. His desertion gives the friends of Colonel M. S. Quay control of the senate and practically insures the election of William F. Snyder, of Chester, as president pro tem.

Colonel Quay's opponents still insisted that the former senator will not be elected and that the anti-Quay

Republicans and Democrats will control the organization of the house. Senator William Flinn, of Allegheny, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in Western Pennsylvania, said last night that the defeat of Quay for senator and William T. Marshall for speaker was absolutely assured. Colonel James M. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, the Democratic leader, in a statement last night, said:

"At a meeting of the house Democrats tomorrow morning (meaning Monday morning) a committee will be appointed to meet a like committee of independent Republicans to go over the question of a fusion organization of the house. My information is that if the independent Republicans have sufficient votes to accomplish it, that the Democrats will be unanimous for a fusion organization on a fair and equitable basis."

Mr. Marshall said positively that the stalwart Republicans will organize the house and that he will be elected speaker. Colonel Quay's friends were jubilant over the accession of Senator Washburn, and professed to be absolutely confident of his election. A caucus of the anti-Quay Republicans will be held today to formulate a plan for fusion with the Democrats on the organization of the house. A candidate for United States senator may also be chosen. The stalwart Republicans of the senate and house will hold caucuses this evening to select officers and employees and on tomorrow evening to formally nominate Colonel Quay for senator.

Senator C. L. Magee, of Allegheny, who has been under the treatment of a Philadelphia specialist since the close of the last legislature, came to Harrisburg Sunday to attend the session. Mr. Magee said he is gradually regaining his health and that he will take his seat in the senate on Tuesday. He has leased a house in Harrisburg and expected to stay here during the session with his family.

A meeting of the 30 Democratic senators and members in the city was held last night to take action on the desertion of Senator Washburn. A committee of three was appointed to wait upon the senator and another committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions against him.

The resolutions committee reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Democratic members of the general assembly that the reasons given for his proposed action of affiliating with the corrupt Quay machine but thinly disguised his disgraceful conduct in proving recreant to the trust reposed in him by the Democratic voters and good citizens of his district.

Resolved, That it has been more than a generation since our state was brought into like shame and disrepute by the bad faith and recreant conduct of three members of the assembly, who, disregarding their duty to their constituents, their fealty to their party and their obligations to the people of their districts to represent honorably and faithfully the trust reposed in them, and whose names have become a reproach and a by-word throughout the state as faithless legislators.

Resolved, That while we recognize the right of a member of the general assembly to vote his convictions on questions of economical and party policies, we condemn the action of Senator Washburn in allying himself with the Quay machine, which he has so frequently and earnestly denounced in the past, when the result of his course must inevitably lead, if successful, to again place in position and power the worst and most servile elements of the Republican party.

Colonel Guffey was asked after the Democratic meeting what he had to say regarding Washburn's declaration that the Democratic organization was controlled by Standard Oil influence. He said:

"It is not worthy of notice, a falsehood to cover his own perfidy."

The friends of Senator Quay claimed several gains during Sunday. The insurgents say they have lost no votes and have gained several. Each side gives the names of the recruits. The regulars give out the names of Senator John F. Budke, of Beaver-Washington district, in addition to Senator O. E. Washburn, of Crawford. The insurgents offset this with Representative Thomas J. Reynolds, of Lackawanna, and John P. Emery, of Venango, both of whom, they say, are on the Quay list. Emery and Reynolds attended the anti-Quay caucus last night and made speeches defining their position as irrevocably opposed to the machine on all questions.

Chairman Johnson Says It Is Organized Until 1904.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee, who has passed through

Kansas City en route from Chicago to his home in Kansas, said: "I am not in a position to say what will be done toward maintaining the Democratic organization perfected during the last campaign, but I will say that there will be no reorganization of the national committee. The committee is organized until 1904 and will remain as it is until that time. I believe that the present precinct organization can be maintained and made entirely self-supporting."

MAD DOG FINALLY KILLED.

It Had Bitten a Man and About Twenty Dogs.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—After biting 20 dogs and a man a mad dog in this place was finally killed. The animal ran through the streets snapping at everything in sight. Policeman Frank McCormick started after the dog. It ran out Pittsburgh street, and at the corner of Pittsburgh and Fayette streets met Boone Pierce, a son of Red Cloud, the Indian chief, who lives in a tent on the crest of Chestnut ridge, jumped on him and tore a large chunk of flesh from his leg.

His screams brought a crowd, which immediately joined itself to the crowd headed by McCormick. Most of the mob was well armed, and as they ran they fired at the fleeing animal. The dog was finally shot.

B. & O. May Secure an Island.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—A movement is on foot at this place by which the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will become owners of Mus Island, in the Youghiogheny river at this place. It is owned by the Hogg heirs, and lies next to the tract of land already owned by the Baltimore and Ohio. The millrace for the Calhoun & Co's planing mill runs between the mainland and the island. It is thought that the railroad will erect new shops on this tract at once, using the water power from the river.

Gov. Roosevelt Delivered Address In New York.

READ ALOUD AT OVER 100 MEETINGS.

Copies of the Speech Had Been Sent Out In Advance to Other Associations Throughout the Country—Robert Speer, a Presbyterian Official, Also Spoke.

New York, Dec. 31.—Governor Roosevelt spoke Sunday afternoon at Carnegie hall before an audience of young men that completely filled the house. It was a mass meeting arranged by the Young Men's Christian association, of this city, but it was somewhat unique in the fact that the chief speaker was in a way addressing more than a hundred other audiences throughout the country. It had been arranged so that copies of Governor Roosevelt's address had been secured in advance, and sent to secretaries of associations throughout the country and it was said that the address was read aloud at more than a hundred other meetings at the same hour.

William E. Dodge presided, and among those on the platform were General O. O. Howard, General John R. Brooke and various officers from the harbor forts and the navy yard. There were also more than a hundred blue jackets and soldiers present, most of whom are members of the army and navy branch of the association. The New York festival chorus had elevated seats on the platform, and, conducted by Mr. Morgan, the director, rendered musical selections.

Mr. Dodge spoke briefly on the history of the Young Men's Christian association, and then eulogized Colonel Roosevelt in the various capacities in which he is known to the public. The vice president-elect was received with prolonged applause.

Robert E. Speer, lay secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, made the concluding address.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 31.—Rev. E. A. Monsignor Garvey was formerly rector of St. Mary's church at Williamsport, and when Bishop O'Hara, of the Scranton diocese, died his name was one of the three sent to Rome to fill the vacancy. Rev. H. J. Hoban, however, was named for the place. Rev. Garvey was then transferred from Williamsport to Pittston and made vicar general of the diocese. Some months ago the pope named him as a domestic prelate, with the title of monsignor.

CHINA ACCEPTS TERMS

Plenipotentiaries Ordered to Sign Joint Note.

TO GET BETTER TERMS
 Guffy Character.
 Out by Washburn as Fair.
 Perfidy—Quay People Jubilant.
 Return to Peking at the
 ruary—Li Hung Chang Feeble.

Pekin, Dec. 31.—The Chinese plenipotentiaries were unexpectedly ordered to sign the preliminary joint note and have notified the foreign envoys to that effect.

The Chinese themselves were astonished at receiving the imperial instructions. Neither Li Hung Chang nor Prince Ching had expected success in persuading the court under 10 days.

The emperor's instructions are to agree fully to the note, but to endeavor to get the best terms possible, particularly in the matter of limiting the number of the legation guards, and also as to the places where these are to be located.

The plenipotentiaries are instructed to endeavor to limit the number of army posts along the line of railway to as few as possible, and finally to request the powers not to destroy the forts, but merely to disarm them.

Li Hung Chang's health is bad, and it is doubtful whether he will be able to do more than affix his signature to an instrument delegating his powers to Prince Ching until another plenipotentiary has been appointed. He dressed Sunday morning and was carried in a chair to the residence of Prince Ching, with whom he held a long consultation.

Prince Ching then called upon the Doyen of the diplomatic corps, the Spanish minister, Senor De Cologan, and requested him to notify the other envoys that instructions had been received from the emperor to sign the note.

Paris, Dec. 31.—The Havas agency received the following dispatch, Dec. 30, from Peking:

"Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang have communicated to the foreign envoys an imperial edict, in which the emperor declares that China accepts the joint note and authorizes Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang to negotiate and to ask for a suspension of hostilities."

Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, according to another dispatch to the Havas agency, Dec. 30, said that Emperor Kwang Su had expressed a desire that the court should return to Peking at the end of February.

ARMY BILL PROBABLY FIRST.

It May Be Given Precedence Over the Ship Subsidy Bill.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The combination of discredited Populists is not the only rock the ship subsidy bill will encounter as soon as congress convenes again. Senator Hawley announced his purpose of asking, on the day of reconvening, that the army reorganization bill be taken up. If there is objection he will move that it be taken up.

When he said he would make a motion to that effect he added that it is not his desire to antagonize Senator Hanna, but that the necessity for a reorganization of the army is so great that the bill must be quickly passed so that the war department may begin the recruiting necessary to replace the volunteer troops in the Philippines, whose terms of enlistment expire on July 1.

The president is anxious to have both bills passed, but, as the Democrats and Populists prefer the army bill to the bounty measure, it may be that choice will have to be made between the two. It is likely that the Republican steering committee will try to compromise the matter by having one bill made the unfinished business up to a certain hour, the subsidy bill to have the remainder of the time. The danger of such an arrangement is, however, that both will be lost.

Hiram Hitchcock Dead.

New York, Dec. 31.—Hiram Hitchcock, the last of the founders of the Fifth Avenue hotel, died at the hotel after a few days' illness from pneumonia. The deceased was born in Claremont, N. H., Aug. 27, 1832. In 1859, with Alfred B. Darling and Paron Stevens, Mr. Hitchcock founded the Fifth Avenue hotel.

Edwin G. Bedford Dead.

Paris, Ky., Dec. 31.—Edwin G. Bedford died near this city, aged 86 years. He was a noted breeder of short-horn cattle.

POPE TO HONOR THEM.

New Cardinals to Be Named—Holy Father Champions Cause of French Religious Communities

Rome, Dec. 31.—It is reported that the recent disagreement between the French government and the pope regarding the appointment of bishops has been removed. At the consistory in January a number of new cardinals will be created, but no American is among them. English pilgrims propose to erect a grand monument in St. Peter's to the memory of the British pope, Hadrian. A large number of pilgrims was expected to arrive in Rome today, headed by Cardinal Vaughan and the Duke of Norfolk.

Paris, Dec. 31.—An interview with the pope, published in The Matin, was followed by an official letter from his holiness to Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, detailing the services rendered to civilization by the French religious communities, and energetically condemning the government's proposed bill to deprive these communities of the liberty they have hitherto enjoyed.

From the terms of the letter it becomes evident that the pope has exhausted every expedient and all the diplomatic means at his command to induce the government to abandon its proposed anti-clerical bill, and that he now feels called upon to make a supreme appeal to the religious conscience of the nation. The letter concludes with the following passage:

"It is the duty of French bishops to work with harmony in thought and act in order to enlighten the public mind and safeguard the rights and interests of the religious communities, whose existence, liberty and prosperity are important factors in the Catholic church and for both France and humanity as a whole."

This is considered tantamount to an open declaration of hostility to Waldeck-Rousseau and his government. Already the reactionary papers seized occasion to agitate the public mind and make political capital out of the religious sentiments of the masses.

A BOY KIDNAPED.

Sheriff and Indignant Citizens Were In Chase—Deed Occurred In Michigan.

Houghton, Mich., Dec. 31.—The 5-year-old son of Mrs. Raymond Thiervy, of Dollar Bay, has been kidnaped, evidently in the hope of securing a ransom. It is believed the boy was taken by a well-known character in the copper region, and the sheriff with a large posse of indignant citizens is scouring the country, hoping to catch him before he gets beyond the state line. It is thought he is heading for Canada.

Omaha, Dec. 31.—Mr. Cudahy received another letter, the orthography of which was poor as was also the writing, which was apparently written by the same person as the letter dated Dec. 19, demanding the ransom. The letter was addressed "E. A. Cudahy, 518 South Thirty-seventh street, Omaha." The address as well as the letter is printed in lead pencil. The latter was written on common note paper, ruled with blue ink, which is scarcely traceable. The postmark shows that the letter was mailed at the postoffice about 8 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 22. The letter reads: "Cudahy, if you value the boy's life at the Price of A Bullet you will withdraw the Reward at once. And let well enough alone, if you don't do this we will finish the Job with a Bullet. If any man whether guilty or innocent is ever arrested A Bullet will close the Boy's mouth. You will think of this warning when it is to late."

The only marked difference between this letter and the letter demanding a ransom is in the greater number of misspelled words. This, however, may be an affectation, for the most difficult words are spelled correctly, while some of the simple words are misspelled.

Mr. Cudahy stated that he has not withdrawn the reward and does not propose to do so.

Detectives secured information which they expect will result in locating the buggy used by the men in the abduction. Robert Robinson positively identified Crowe as the man who acted as a principal in the negotiations with the Schneiderwinds for the Grover street cottage, in which young Cudahy was supposed to have been imprisoned.

Burt L. Goodale Dead.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—Burt L. Goodale, a theatrical man of Los Angeles, Cal., died here after a short illness.

AMERICAN WOMEN.

Call Caine Stated Their Position Was Higher Than That of Any Other Nation In the World.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dec. 31.—Hall Caine, writing to the Sorosis, a local woman's club, under date of Greba-castle, Isle of Man, Dec. 8, said:

"When one considers what the position of woman was, even in the most civilized countries, as recently as 100 years ago, and how high a place she has now won for herself, not only in the statute books of nations, but in the republic of art, one cannot but feel that the change is even more remarkable than some of the great material developments which have distinguished the century."

"Speaking as one who has seen life in many countries, I feel that it is within the truth to say that the position of woman is higher in America than in any other part of the world. For this result American women have, no doubt, to thank their own natural gifts and great independence of mind, but they have also, I think, to be grateful to the splendid chivalry in the other sex, which is nowhere more conspicuous than in the best type of American gentlemen."

"Hall Caine."

MILES WAS UNDECIDED.

May or May Not Reply to Alger's Article—Questioned Necessity of Answering It.

Washington, Dec. 31.—General Miles was not yet prepared to make any formal statement in reply to the published article of former Secretary Alger, regarding the use of canned beef and embalmed beef during and after the Spanish war. He is still undecided as to whether he will have any statement to make, saying in reply to questions on the subject that he has not yet fully determined what his course will be. General Miles said he had not even read the full extracts from General Alger's article published in the newspapers, such as he had seen being so full of misleading statements that he did not care to go through with the entire matter.

"One hundred thousand soldiers have gone home from the Spanish war and told the story, and the proper officers have condemned the action of certain persons," said General Miles, "so that I question whether it is necessary to say anything further about the controversy."

Seranton Street Car Strike Settled.

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 31.—1 a. m.—About 12:45 this morning the street car strike was called off. President Clark, General Manager Sillman and Directors John and Timothy Burke came to the hall after the vote to compromise was passed and were received with tumultuous cheers. The men demanded what was equivalent to an advance of 3 cents an hour. They were allowed 2 cents.

A Fire at Columbus.

Columbus, Dec. 31.—Fire on the upper floor of the sixth story of the business block at Fourth and Main streets caused a loss estimated at $50,000. The chief damage was by water, which deluged the stocks of the various merchants occupying the building.

Presented a Wage Scale.

Sharon, Pa., Dec. 31.—The National Steel company presented its wage scale for 1901 to the employees of its various works throughout the country for consideration. It is not likely it will be accepted here, unless some modifications are made, as it means a reduction of 10 per cent over the prevailing scale. The present scale expired today, and unless a new one is signed a shutdown will result. The new scale embodies the same rate of wages paid in 1899.

Lou Hartman Captured.

Clarion, Pa., Dec. 31.—Lou Harmon, who escaped from jail here, was captured at New Bethlehem. It seems after escaping from jail he went to Summerville and then down to the low-grade railroad, and by some accident fell and broke his leg. When he applied at a doctor's office for help he was recognized and word sent here and the officers went for him.

Murderer McDonald Dead.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Samuel McDonald, the government clerk who murdered Auditor Morris, of the war department, died here. He fought against living. It was thought the message from his brother, W. H. McDonald, of the Bostonians, saying he could not leave the company to come to him for some time, and the fact that Judge McDonald, his uncle, from Steubenville, O., had left for home, disheartened him. The widow of Morris expressed satisfaction on hearing of McDonald's death, as she hated the ordeal of a trial and feared McDonald's friends might get him off with an easy punishment.

Minister Declined a Call.

Cleveland, Dec. 31.—Rev. Dr. W. W. Weeks, of Toronto, Ont., has declined a call to the Euclid Avenue Baptist church in this city. This is the church of which John D. Rockefeller is a leading member. It has been without a pastor since last summer. It was announced Sunday that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., had been granted a letter of withdrawal from this church to the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, in New York.

Two Fatal Elevator Accidents.

Cleveland, Dec. 31.—Two fatal elevator accidents occurred within five minutes in buildings only a short distance from each other. Sydney Hamm, of London, Ont., stepped into an open shaft and fell six stories, and Ralph Spellman, aged 19, fell nine stories. Both were instantly killed.

Germany Not Buying Them.

Copenhagen, Dec. 31.—In Danish official circles the report that Germany is negotiating to purchase the Danish Antilles is denied. "If the islands are to be sold," said a high official, "the purchaser will be the United States and no other power. All will be said or none."

CHINA ACCEPTS TERMS

Plenipotentiaries Ordered to Sign Joint Note.

TO GET BETTER TERMS

Out by Washburn as Fair.
Perfidy—Quay People Jubilant.
Return to Peking as the reary—Li Hung Chang Feeble.

Peking, Dec. 31.—The Chinese plenipotentiaries were unexpectedly ordered to sign the preliminary joint note and have notified the foreign envoys to that effect.

The Chinese themselves were astonished at receiving the imperial instructions. Neither Li Hung Chang nor Prince Ching had expected success in persuading the court under 10 days.

The emperor's instructions are to agree fully to the note, but to endeavor to get the best terms possible, particularly in the matter of limiting the number of the legation guards, and also as to the places where these are to be located.

The plenipotentiaries are instructed to endeavor to limit the number of army posts along the line of railway to as few as possible, and finally to request the powers not to destroy the forts, but merely to disarm them.

Li Hung Chang's health is bad, and it is doubtful whether he will be able to do more than affix his signature to an instrument delegating his powers to Prince Ching until another plenipotentiary has been appointed. He dressed Sunday morning and was carried in a chair to the residence of Prince Ching, with whom he held a long consultation.

Prince Ching then called upon the Doyen of the diplomatic corps, the Spanish minister, Senor De Cologan, and requested him to notify the other envoys that instructions had been received from the emperor to sign the note.

Paris, Dec. 31.—The Havas agency received the following dispatch, Dec. 30, from Peking:

"Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang have communicated to the foreign envoys an imperial edict, in which the emperor declares that China accepts the joint note and authorizes Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang to negotiate and to ask for a suspension of hostilities."

Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, according to another dispatch to the Havas agency, Dec. 30, said that Emperor Kwang Su had expressed a desire that the court should return to Peking at the end of February.

ARMY BILL PROBABLY FIRST.

It May Be Given Precedence Over the Ship Subsidy Bill.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The combination of discredited Populists is not the only rock the ship subsidy bill will encounter as soon as congress convenes again. Senator Hawley announced his purpose of asking, on the day of reconvening, that the army reorganization bill be taken up. If there is objection he will move that it be taken up.

When he said he would make a motion to that effect he added that it is not his desire to antagonize Senator Hanna, but that the necessity for a reorganization of the army is so great that the bill must be quickly passed so that the war department may begin the recruiting necessary to replace the volunteer troops in the Philippines, whose terms of enlistment expire on July 1.

The president is anxious to have both bills passed, but, as the Democrats and Populists prefer the army bill to the bounty measure, it may be that choice will have to be made between the two. It is likely that the Republican steering committee will try to compromise the matter by having one bill made the unfinished business up to a certain hour, the subsidy bill to have the remainder of the time. The danger of such an arrangement is, however, that both will be lost.

Hiram Hitchcock Dead.

New York, Dec. 31.—Hiram Hitchcock, the last of the founders of the Fifth Avenue hotel, died at the hotel after a few days' illness from pneumonia. The deceased was born in Claremont, N. H., Aug. 27, 1832. In 1859, with Alfred B. Darling and Parson Stevens, Mr. Hitchcock founded the Fifth Avenue hotel.

Edwin G. Bedford Dead.

Paris, Ky., Dec. 31.—Edwin G. Bedford died near this city, aged 86 years. He was a noted breeder of short-horn cattle.

POPE TO HONOR THEM

New Cardinals to Be Named—Holy Father Champions Cause of French Religious Communities

Rome, Dec. 31.—It is reported that the recent disagreement between the French government and the pope regarding the appointment of bishops has been removed. At the consistory in January a number of new cardinals will be created, but no American is among them. English pilgrims propose to erect a grand monument in St. Peter's to the memory of the British pope, Hadrian. A large number of pilgrims was expected to arrive in Rome today, headed by Cardinal Vaughan and the Duke of Norfolk.

Paris, Dec. 31.—An interview with the pope, published in The Matin, was followed by an official letter from his holiness to Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, detailing the services rendered to civilization by the French religious communities, and energetically condemning the government's proposed bill to deprive these communities of the liberty they have hitherto enjoyed.

From the terms of the letter it becomes evident that the pope has exhausted every expedient and all the diplomatic means at his command to induce the government to abandon its proposed anti-clerical bill, and that he now feels called upon to make a supreme appeal to the religious conscience of the nation. The letter concludes with the following passage:

"It is the duty of French bishops to work with harmony in thought and act in order to enlighten the public mind and safeguard the rights and interests of the religious communities, whose existence, liberty and prosperity are important factors in the Catholic church and for both France and humanity as a whole."

This is considered tantamount to an open declaration of hostility to Waldeck-Rousseau and his government. Already the reactionary papers seized occasion to agitate the public mind and make political capital out of the religious sentiments of the masses.

A BOY KIDNAPED.

Sheriff and Indignant Citizens Were In Chase—Deed Occurred In Michigan.

Houghton, Mich., Dec. 31.—The 5-year-old son of Mrs. Raymond Thiervy, of Dollar Bay, has been kidnaped, evidently in the hope of securing a ransom. It is believed the boy was taken by a well-known character in the copper region, and the sheriff with a large posse of indignant citizens is scouring the country, hoping to catch him before he gets beyond the state line. It is thought he is heading for Canada.

Omaha, Dec. 31.—Mr. Cudahy received another letter, the orthography of which was poor as was also the writing, which was apparently written by the same person as the letter dated Dec. 19, demanding the ransom. The letter was addressed "E. A. Cudahy, 518 South Thirty-seventh street, Omaha." The address as well as the letter is printed in lead pencil. The latter was written on common note paper, ruled with blue ink, which is scarcely traceable. The postmark shows that the letter was mailed at the postoffice about 8 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 22. The letter reads:

"Cudahy, if you value the boy's life at the Price of A Bullet you will withdraw the Reward at once. And let well enough alone, if You dont Jo this we will finish the Job with a Bulet. If any man whether guilty or innocent is ever arrested A Bulet will close the Boy's mouth. You will think of this warning when it is to late."

The only marked difference between this letter and the letter demanding a ransom is in the greater number of misspelled words. This, however, may be an affectation, for the most difficult words are spelled correctly, while some of the simple words are misspelled.

Mr. Cudahy stated that he has not withdrawn the reward and does not propose to do so.

Detectives secured information which they expect will result in locating the buggy used by the men in the abduction. Robert Robinson positively identified Crowe as the man who acted as a principal in the negotiations with the Schneiders for the Grover street cottage, in which young Cudahy was supposed to have been imprisoned.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—Burt L. Goodale, a theatrical man of Los Angeles, Cal., died here after a short illness.

AMERICAN WOMEN.

Call Caine Stated Their Position Was Higher Than That of Any Other Nation in the World.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dec. 31.—Hall Caine, writing to the Sorosis, a local woman's club, under date of Greba-castle, Isle of Man, Dec. 8, said:

"When one considers what the position of woman was, even in the most civilized countries, as recently as 100 years ago, and how high a place she has now won for herself, not only in the statute books of nations, but in the republic of art, one cannot but feel that the change is even more remarkable than some of the great material developments which have distinguished the century."

"Speaking as one who has seen life in many countries, I feel that it is within the truth to say that the position of woman is higher in America than in any other part of the world. For this result American women have, no doubt, to thank their own natural gifts and great independence of mind, but they have also, I think, to be grateful to the splendid chivalry in the other sex, which is nowhere more conspicuous than in the best type of American gentlemen."

"Hall Caine."

MILES WAS UNDECIDED.

May or May Not Reply to Alger's Article—Questioned Necessity of Answering It.

Washington, Dec. 31.—General Miles was not yet prepared to make any formal statement in reply to the published article of former Secretary Alger, regarding the use of canned beef and embalmed beef during and after the Spanish war. He is still undecided as to whether he will have any statement to make, saying in reply to questions on the subject that he has not yet fully determined what his course will be. General Miles said he had not even read the full extracts from General Alger's article published in the newspapers, such as he had seen being so full of misleading statements that he did not care to go through with the entire matter.

"One hundred thousand soldiers have gone home from the Spanish war and told the story, and the proper officers have condemned the action of certain persons," said General Miles, "so that I question whether it is necessary to say anything further about the controversy."

The men demanded what was equivalent to an advance of 3 cents an hour. They were allowed 2 cents.

The latter was written on common note paper, ruled with blue ink, which is scarcely traceable. The postmark shows that the letter was mailed at the postoffice about 8 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 22. The letter reads: "Cudahy, if you value the boy's life at the Price of A Bullet you will withdraw the Reward at once. And let well Enough alone, if You dont Jo this we will finish the Job with a Bullet. If any man whether guilty or innocent is ever arrested A Bullet will close the Boy's mouth. You will think of this warning when it is to late."

The only marked difference between this letter and the letter demanding a ransom is in the greater number of misspelled words. This, however, may be an affectation, for the most difficult words are spelled correctly, while some of the simple words are misspelled.

Mr. Cudahy stated that he has not withdrawn the reward and does not propose to do so.

Detectives secured information which they expect will result in locating the buggy used by the men in the abduction. Robert Robinson positively identified Crowe as the man who acted as a principal in the negotiations with the Schneiderwinds for the Grover street cottage, in which young Cudahy was supposed to have been imprisoned.

AMERICAN WOMEN.

Hall Caine Stated Their Position Was Higher Than That of Any Other Nation in the World.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dec. 31.—Hall Caine, writing to the Sorosis, a local woman's club, under date of Greba-castle, Isle of Man, Dec. 8, said:

"When one considers what the position of woman was, even in the most civilized countries, as recently as 100 years ago, and how high a place she has now won for herself, not only in the statute books of nations, but in the republic of art, one cannot but feel that the change is even more remarkable than some of the great material developments which have distinguished the century."

"Speaking as one who has seen life in many countries, I feel that it is within the truth to say that the position of woman is higher in America than in any other part of the world. For this result American women have, no doubt, to thank their own natural gifts and great independence of mind, but they have also, I think, to be grateful to the splendid chivalry in the other sex, which is nowhere more conspicuous than in the best type of American gentlemen."

MILES WAS UNDECIDED.

May or May Not Reply to Alger's Article—Questioned Necessity of Answering It.

Washington, Dec. 31.—General Miles was not yet prepared to make any formal statement in reply to the published article of former Secretary Alger, regarding the use of canned beef and embalmed beef during and after the Spanish war. He is still undecided as to whether he will have any statement to make, saying in reply to questions on the subject that he has not yet fully determined what his course will be. General Miles said he had not even read the full extracts from General Alger's article published in the newspapers, such as he had seen being so full of misleading statements that he did not care to go through with the entire matter.

"One hundred thousand soldiers have gone home from the Spanish war and told the story, and the proper officers have condemned the action of certain persons," said General Miles, "so that I question whether it is necessary to say anything further about the controversy."

Seranton Street Car Strike Settled.

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 31.—1 a. m.—About 12:45 this morning the street car strike was called off. President Clark, General Manager Sillman and Directors John and Timothy Burke came to the hall after the vote to compromise was passed and were received with tumultuous cheers. The men demanded what was equivalent to an advance of 3 cents an hour. They were allowed 2 cents.

A Fire at Columbus.

Columbus, Dec. 31.—Fire on the upper floor of the sixth story of the business block at Fourth and Main streets caused a loss estimated at $50,000. The chief damage was by water, which deluged the stocks of the various merchants occupying the building.

Presented a Wage Scale.

Sharon, Pa., Dec. 31.—The National Steel company presented its wage scale for 1901 to the employees of its various works throughout the country for consideration. It is not likely it will be accepted here, unless some modifications are made, as it means a reduction of 10 per cent over the prevailing scale. The present scale expired today, and unless a new one is signed a shutdown will result. The new scale embodies the same rate of wages paid in 1899.

Lou Hartman Captured.

Clarion, Pa., Dec. 31.—Lou Harmon, who escaped from jail here, was captured at New Bethlehem. It seems after escaping from jail he went to Summerville and then down to the low-grade railroad, and by some accident fell and broke his leg. When he applied at a doctor's office for help he was recognized and word sent here and the officers went for him.

Murderer McDonald Dead.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Samuel McDonald, the government clerk who murdered Auditor Morris, of the war department, died here. He fought against living. It was thought the message from his brother, W. H. McDonald, of the Bostonians, saying he could not leave the company to come to him for some time, and the fact that Judge McDonald, his uncle, from Steubenville, O., had left for home, disheartened him. The widow of Morris expressed satisfaction on hearing of McDonald's death, as she hated the ordeal of a trial and feared McDonald's friends might get him off with an easy punishment.

Cleveland, Dec. 31.—Rev. Dr. W. W. Weeks, of Toronto, Ont., has declined a call to the Euclid Avenue Baptist church in this city. This is the church of which John D. Rockefeller is a leading member. Rockefeller, Jr., had been granted a letter of withdrawal from this church to the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, in New York.

Germany Not Buying Them.

Copenhagen, Dec. 31.—In Danish official circles the report that Germany is negotiating to purchase the Danish Antilles is denied. "If the islands are to be sold," said a high official, "the purchaser will be the United States and no other power. All will be sold or none."

quent Sermon from the Subject
"Looking Backward."

Last evening at the First Presbye-rian church Rev. C. G. Jordan preached from the subject, "Looking Backward." He took his text from the derful works to be remembered." He reviewed the progress made in the 19th century in an able manner.

The choir rendered a very pleasing anthem.

SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

ASSESSMENT INSURANCE COM-PANIES MUST PAY

The General Tax—Important Opinion
Rendered by Attorney
General.

Assistant Attorney General Todd on Friday morning sent to State Insurance Commissioner Vorys a most important opinion relative to the taxation of insurance companies of Ohio
that will be of interest to many people
here.

Mr. Todd holds that assessment companies of all kinds, other than fraternal,
are subject to the general tax of 2½ per cent upon the gross premium
receipts from their business in this state.

All such companies, he says, in his opinion, except fraternal societies,
must advertise their annual statements, showing that they have complied with law, in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where they have agents, and a certificate of
compliance must be issued them by the insurance department. The laws, as interpreted by Mr. Todd, have never before been enforced against these
companies, and no previous administration of the state insurance department has paid any attention to them.
Their enforcement would greatly increase the revenue of the state. About 40 companies which have never reported their receipts to the state insurance department would be affected.

Mr. Todd further holds in his opinion that all mutual fire insurance companies are subject to the tax of ½ per cent upon their gross premium receipts for the maintenance of the state
fire marshal's department, and that assessment associations known as farmers' associations are not so liable.

Aged Resident Dead.

Alex McBane received word today that Miss Chrissie McGilvary, of the Scotch settlement, had died at that place this morning.

is very well known in this city, being a cousin of Mr. McBane. She came from Scotland in 1836 and has resided in the vicinity of Glasgow ever since.

REGULAR RUNS.

STREET CAR CONDUCTORS WILL
GET THEM TOMORROW.

They Are All Very Well Pleased That
the New Order is to Go Into Effect.

The street railway company will tomorrow start their conductors on regular runs.

They have for the past two weeks
been running at random, the men not knowing from day to day when they
would go on again, but they will now
be assigned to regular time.

The old men, who have been assigned to duty as conductors will, as a matter of course, be given the preference in the way of runs, as well as a little the best of it in the matter of
wages.

The new move will be greeted with satisfaction by the employes of the road, as it has been anything but
agreeable to them to work as they
have been lately.

DIVORCE CASES.

As a Result of the Sells Case They
May Hereafter be Held Behind
Closed Doors.

One result of the Sells divorce case
will be the introduction of a bill in
the next legislature which will prevent the hearing of contested divorce
cases in public.

The bill will be drawn by a committee of the Franklin county bar, to be appointed at its next meeting, and
will be fathered by the entire bar association of Franklin county.

It is expected the attorneys of the
state generally will favor the bill, as
all have at different times suffered as
the Columbus lawyers did during the Sells trial, which blocked the wheels
of the court for six weeks.

The proposed bill probably will authorize the appointment of a referee
in contested divorce cases, who will take the evidence in chambers and report his findings to the court for action.

TO SIOUX CITY.

Rev. S. P. Barrackman's Resignation
is Today Being Considered by Steubenville Presbytery.

A called meeting of the Steubenville
presbytery of the United Presbyterian church is being held today in the First United Presbyterian church, this city.

sider and act upon the resignation of
Rev. S. P. Barrackman, of the Saline-
ville pastorate.

Rev. Barrackman will leave soon for Sioux City, Ia., where he proposes organizing a mission.

A number of the members of presbytery will remain in this city over

Stephen's Episcopal church this evening at 10:30 o'clock.

CITY WAS GOOD DURING DECEMBER

Police Department Has Made Only
64 Arrests Up to Date Which Shows

A DECIDED FALLING OFF

From November, but It Is an Increase Over the Report For
Last Year.

ONE ARREST SATURDAY NIGHT

From present indications the month
of December promises to be notable
for the small number of arrests made
by the local police force.

To the present but 64 arrests have
been made, and the prospects are that
that number will not be increased to
any extent before the end of the month. When compared with other months under the present administration the number is small. However,
it is considerably higher than the same
months in former years.

Saturday was unusually quiet, and
but one arrest was made. William Briggs evidently had some money left
from Christmas and Saturday night he got drunk. He was found at a late hour at the McNicol pottery by Officer
Mahony. Briggs was fast asleep and Mahony called the patrol. Fireman
Bryan responded and the drunken
man was taken to jail, where he spent
the night.

ing at 11:30 o'clock from heart trouble and asthma from which she has

Deceased was aged 57 years and
was born at Langton, England. She came to this city in 1873 and in 1874
was married to William Mountford, of
this city, and has resided here ever since. Four children were born to bless the union: William R., deceased;
Joseph S., Edwin H. and John S., all
of whom survive her.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and will be in charge of White Rose Lodge No.
25, Daughters of St. George, of which
she was a member, and interment will

Controlling the Drink Traffic In the New Century.

(Copyright 1900' The Christian Herald.)

The End of Saloon Power. [By William Wardell.]

I am not anticipating reforms in the liquor traffic in the new century, and am not interested in its control in this century or the next. I am striving only to outlaw and destroy it. However difficult and remote this may seem, it is at least possible, but the traffic has come to have such power over political parties, over legislation and public opinion, that control in any large sense is, in my judgment, absolutely and definitely impossible.

Does any one doubt this? Let him test it by making an effort this winter to reform, in the interests of decency and all that pertains to public morals, the vilest combination of saloon and house of ill-fame ever legalized or tolerated in this state, the Raines Law Hotel. Call a public meeting for this purpose; a few reformers and "fanatics" will attend, but not a single business man or representative citizen will be present. The meeting will pass resolutions to be presented to the legislature, a committee of which will grant him a hearing and proceed promptly and with scant courtesy to "turn him down," and rightly, as he can bring no evidence of public sentiment in favor of such reform. Test it by seeking to close one saloon or to curtail its influence and power, and he will find the whole traffic solidly united to defeat him, and the traffic will succeed.

After a few experiences of this kind he will, I am sure, become convinced that to destroy is more feasible and possible than to control, and will not waste time and energy in useless efforts.

And why should not the liquor traffic be destroyed? Why should the saloon be permitted to exist? Is it not absolutely a bad thing, debasing and ruining the individual, wrecking homes and spreading misery wherever its influence extends?

Prof. Landois, one of the most eminent German physiologists, whose works are all translated into all languages, and now used in every school of medicine, in his latest edition of 1899 says:

"Alcohol acts in small quantities as a stimulant, in larger quantities as over stimulant, thereby paralyzing the nervous system. Through the former, it is capable of exciting the energies of the body through a short illness, but in every instance it causes a loss through later relaxation of all the muscles."

The highest authority in this country, the United States supreme court, condemns this traffic, as shown in the following quotations from its decisions.

"Nor can we ignore the fact established by statistics accessible to every one, that the disorder, pauperism and crime prevalent in the country are in large measure directly traceable to this evil." Again, its "use as a beverage is hurtful to society and to every member of it, and is therefore a business in which no one may lawfully engage in any way."

We enter upon the new century with renewed hope, and with an unwavering faith in the triumph of right, and therefore the ultimate destruction of this cure in our own and other lands.

Suppression Better Than Control. [By Dr. Isaac K. Funk.]

The liquor traffic never gave us so much crime and so much misery as today. In 1840 the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the United States was three and a half gallons per capita; in 1860 five gallons; in 1883, nine gallons; last year, sixteen gallons. As M. Thiers said to the ministry of Napoleon, we say to the liquor traffic: "You are committing every possible crime." There is in the air today the prelude of a mighty change in all that pertains to social welfare.

What shall be the plan of campaign against this evil for the coming century? Prohibition absolute. The saloon is a murderer, and "no murderer hath eternal life." It must die. There can be no compromise with murder. Use tact? Yes. Conquer by replacing? Yes. But never by any kind of compromise.

We should not continue the serious mistake that has been made in attempting restriction along permissive lines. Restriction should be along prohibitive lines. If we are ready to close saloons on Sunday, and at midnight, and on election days, let us say henceforth, "Any man who sells liquor on Sunday, or after midnight, or on election days, shall be punished." Heretofore we have said: "A man can have the privilege to sell liquor except on Sunday, etc."

The license system must end. The Raines law has brought into our New York state and municipal treasuries, in the last five years, $60,788,856, and the result is a carnival of crime such as we have never known before in the city of New York. For the first time in three hundred years we have legalized the right to sell liquor on the Sabbath day. The universe would fall into chaos and the stars be ground to dust if they did not obey the laws of Almighty God. How do we expect to escape when we authorize the violation of the laws of this same God for so much cash in hand? There can be no other policy for the twentieth century than absolute, unconditional prohibition.

The Church Against the Saloon. [By John G. Woolley.]

The law is the public conscience, and to purge it of the wrong of being accessory to the liquor crime is the greatest question for the twentieth century. An accomplice cannot hope to recover his accomplices. Herein is the strength of the Prohibition party: it has come out from among the friends and servants of the liquor traffic. It does not touch the unclean thing. Whether it can force the conscience issue does not yet appear, but it is fit to work at it. The church has declared the true doctrine on the subject substantially in these words: "The liquor traffic can never be licensed without sin, and no political party is entitled to expect, nor ought to receive the vote of a Christian man, so long as it stands committed to the license policy, or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

Water a Substitute for Alcohol. [By A. W. Wagnalls.]

I am asked what reforms should the new century bring in the liquor traffic? The occasioning cause of the traffic is for the quenching of a great, intensifying thirst. Every victim knows of this. It overrides every obstacle. Thirst implies a fever, a fire in the blood and the real cause of this pernicious fever is in the social evil that exists in almost every home. Space prevents giving corroborate testimony, and the nature of the subject is too repulsive for extensive elaboration.

The present efforts at reform are in the direction of restriction and prohibition. Both are well meant and have my considerate sympathy. For the new century a broader and more general reform by substitution is suggested. Our Indians, who are so close to nature, aptly name alcohol as "fire water." It is this liquid fire our burning victims are using to alleviate their torments. But such adds fury to the flames. The conflagration requires immediate attention; it must be put out. This fire is to be quenched by its elemental opposite—water. How? By the systematic drinking of water. How much? When? A full gallon, every day. What kind? Warm water preferably to hot or cold. By whom? Every one. Toper as well as abstainer. Physicians are beginning to recognize the great value of the daily systematic drinking of water in large quantities by the sick as well as those in health. Every one needs to learn that by thus daily flushing every organ, limb, nook and cranny of the body, health, clear brain and longer life are sure to follow.

This method, however, is for the more immediate effect; the relatively temporary quenching of the fire. Water alone will not do all. The sour grapes our fathers will continue to eat, unless there is a complete reformation through right thinking and right conduct. The pulpit will need teach the dynamic law of thought, as affecting the soul and body. This law operates absolutely, minutely and inevitably. It accounts for the not-to-be-named abominations practiced by our parents, the fruits of which are the saloon and the brothel with all their train of evils. In short, the reforms that the new century should bring in the liquor traffic are:

First, restriction by substitution, warm water drinking; and second, and above all things else in the list, prohibition by self-enforcing law; third, dynamic spiritual thinking and actions to correspond—these mean success.

THE NEWS REVIEW.

REV. N. M. CROWE

DELIVERED AN ELOQUENT SERMON YESTERDAY MORNING.

He Reviewed the Century And Spoke of the Wonderful Progress Made.

At the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. N. M. Crowe, preached a sermon appropriate to the closing of the century, his text being John 4:38, "Other men labored and ye are entered into their labors."

He directed attention to the gratitude we owe to those who have preceded us in laying the foundation for our present progress and development. Washington was great in his day, but were he to come upon our sphere of action now, he would be amazed at the growth of the ideas which he introduced. Lincoln advanced ideas which have been carried into effect far beyond his fondest hopes.

The pinnacle of privilege is occupied by the people of America because of the peculiar blessings God has enabled us to enjoy. The present century has been the one of the greatest development. Great responsibilities come with enlarged opportunities and much is expected of God's people. A spirit filled life is needed. The principles of Christianity have governed the actions of the people of the United States more largely, and because of this God has blessed this nation to a wonderful degree, but we have only been able to come to and hold this position so far as we have followed the leading of God's spirit.

At the close of the morning sermon five new members united with the church.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Pastor of This Church Was Unable to Preach at the Sunday Morning Service.

Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, was ill on Sunday morning; and, after a brief explanation to the congregation, he introduced Rev. Will Huff, who very acceptably addressed the large audience present. The theme of the young man's sermon was the life and character of Christ, and he claims that, while we cannot reach the heights and depths of Christ's life and actions in quantity, we may possess the same essential features to salvation in quality. In other words, that we have the right to take Jesus as our leader and exemplar, and follow in his footsteps just as closely as it is possible for fallen humanity to do.

Rev. Huff again preached in the evening to a large audience, taking as his subject First John, third chapter, second and third verses: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure."

The sermon was along the line of our right to possess sanctification, holiness, or full salvation, and teemed with plain and practical truths, taken direct from God's book of books and given to those present for thoughtful consideration and digestion. Young Huff has made wonderful advancement in his ministerial life since last we heard him; and, under the blessing of God, he is destined to do great good in our Master's harvest field.

The revival services will open at 9 o'clock tonight, and will continue until midnight, when the old year will be given a fond good-bye and the new year will receive a warm welcome, with the prayers of the Christians present that God will bless our nation all through the year 1901. You will be welcome.

—Robert Stewart returned to East Palestine Saturday afternoon after a visit with his parents in this city.

MAY RECOVER.

William Kelley, Who is ill at a Cleveland Hospital, is Very Much Better.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Nagle left Saturday afternoon for Cleveland, where they will visit Mrs. Nagle's brother, William Kelley, who is ill at the Lakeside hospital at that place. About three weeks ago Kelley was taken to a hospital at Wheeling, where his friends were told he had consumption and to bring him home, as he would not live over four weeks.

When he arrived at Cleveland he was told he was not suffering from consumption. An operation was performed and he is now greatly improved. It is thought he will recover.

The Dog's Watchfulness.

The dog's watchfulness, so much and so thoughtlessly lauded as the expression of his devotion to man, is merely the instinctive watchfulness necessary to his safety in a wild state and is a characteristic which he would exercise quite as readily for his own kind and the preservation of his lair as he would for the benefit of man. When he barks at strange dogs or gives warning at night of the approach of strangers, it should not be overlooked that he considers his own home is disturbed, though it may be the home of his master. Much depends on the point of view.—B. Waters in Forest and Stream.

GENUINE CHRISTIANITY.

There has come a strong demand for the genuine article on the part of true men and women—that part of humanity which has been undergoing an acute and intense self-examination, and which will not be satisfied with shams and with false prophets; men and women who have studied and are now studying the life and character of Christ, and who have an unspeakable longing to become more Christlike—to take on and retain the likeness and nature of the meek and lowly Nazarene, the God-man, who “spake as never yet man spake.” This power, that is abroad in such might, spake in unmistakable language to the ministers of the Presbyterian church in their gathering at Cleveland, not long since, when they, as a body of God’s servants and apostles, resolved to go to the Master in heart earnest, in secret, with closed doors, pleading for a revival of genuine Christianity, placing forms and ceremonies and creeds far in the background, and giving such features their proper and secondary position. The ministers of God of all churches, all over the land, are awakening to the full realization of the fact that our Heavenly Father demands that narrowness and bigotry and forms and ceremonies and outside show and glitter shall be cast aside, now and for all time, and that the true leaders of God’s forces shall preach Christ and Him crucified as the one great, essential feature necessary to the salvation of the human race, the world over. Church membership will not save a human soul in time and in eternity; respectability, wealth, honors, place, position, power, all good in their place, when made right and proper use of, will not and cannot save a single human soul. Creatures who depend upon such features, be they ministers or laymen, occupying pulpit or pew, are clutching at straws and building upon an insecure and false foundation. The word of God says that all such are just as surely barred from the happiness of Heaven and the glory of the presence of the Lord as are the unrepentant drunkards, debauchees and murderers of the land. God have mercy upon those who are depending upon their church membership, their morality, their respectability and position in society for their soul’s salvation. The Pharisees of old depended upon these same human characteristics, and Jesus condemned them in unstinted and unmistakable terms. What then? The cry is resounding throughout the land: “Men and brethren, what shall we do to be saved?” And the answer comes back, founded on the Rock—built on the very word of our God: “Believe on the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” The precious promise does not say “may be saved.” Oh, no! It says “thou shalt be saved.” There are no “ifs” and “ands.” It is the solid, bedrock, unimpeachable, unmistakable truth and promise: “Thou shalt be saved.” And this belief in “Christ and Him crucified” is growing apace in this nation, at this time. And of a truth it is sadly needed, in pulpit and pew, and in the nation at large, as vice and drunkenness and crime have been holding high carnival as the ministers of many, very many of our churches, have depended upon lectures, and science, and operatic singing, and operatic music, and sensational preaching, to draw crowds to places designated as “the church of God.” God grant that the opening up of the Twentieth century may result in the demolition and destruction of all false doctrines and isms as connected with the true church of God, and that leaders and people shall unite in the one grand and glorious ultimatum of preaching, in thought, word and action, “Christ and Him crucified.”

A PORTER’S MISTAKE.

The Story of a Lady’s Frizzes and an Actor’s Rage.

As the porter passed through the car she called him aside. There was a whisper and a gleam of silver.

“Now, remember they are in the yellow satchel.”

“Can’t miss dem, ma’am.”

“You won’t let any one see you?”

“No, ma’am.”

“The major is sitting in that car.”

“He won’t see me, ma’am.”

“Well, here is the key.”

The porter took the key and passed through to the next car.

“Guess dis am it,” he said, slipping the thin key in the lock of a yellow satchel. He put his hand in the satchel and pulled out a bunch of hair. Then he unlocked the satchel.

“Heah’s yo’ frizzes, ma’am!”

“Don’t speak so loud.”

“Anything else, ma’am?”

“That’s all, I believe. I just have a minute to put these on before dinner.” The porter reached the platform in time to meet an irate tragedian.

“Not a step!” he thundered in tones that almost lifted the porter’s cap. “What have you done with my whiskers, boy?”

“Your whiskers, sah?”

“Yes; my false beard. The passengers say you opened my satchel with a skeleton key. Where are those whiskers?”

“Laws,” muttered the porter, “Ah went in de wrong satchel!”

Just then a lady passed toward the dining car.

An Expelled M. P.’s Prayer.

During the first half of the eighteenth century one of the members for a southern constituency was expelled from the house of commons for forgery and indeed endured the purgatory of standing in the pillory for a day. He was a man of unctuous piety, and his career in many respects resembled that of Jabez Balfour in later days. After his death the following prayer was found in his own handwriting among his papers:

“O Lord, thou knowest that I have nine houses in the city of London and that I have lately purchased an estate in fee simple in the county of Essex. I beseech thee to preserve the two counties of Middlesex and Essex from fire and earthquake, and as I have a mortgage in Herefordshire I beg of thee to have an eye of compassion also on that county, and for the rest of the counties thou mayest deal with them as thou art pleased. Give a prosperous voyage to the Mermak, because I have not insured her, and enable the bank to meet their bills.”—St. James Gazette.

How Li "Worked" Two Machines.

With a seeming innocence that would have done justice to Ah Sin, the Hea-then Chinese, Li Hung Chang appeared to display the greatest interest in the sewing machines at an exhibition in Edinburgh he visited when in Great Britain several years ago.

His excellency's first question was how long it would take for the sewing machine at which he had sat down to do a certain distance—seemingly confusing the mechanical seamer with a lady's safety at the next stand.

Without waiting for any reply to his query or further ceremony Li started sewing a little seam. Nor did he do it badly, a fact which made him seem delighted as a child. For some time the viceroy continued his hemming and, though got away at length by his attendants, immediately sat down at the next machine and insisted on working it.

"What is the price?" asked Li at length.

"Your excellency shall have it as a gift," was the reply of the exhibitors.

"Then I don't want it in that case," observed the simple and bland Li, "because I require two, one for myself and the other for the empress."

Her Challenge.

A woman in Cape Colony on trial for some offense was told that she might "challenge" any one on the jury to whom she objected. She immediately took advantage of the permission by challenging a highly respectable farmer. On being asked afterward what her reason had been for doing so she explained that she had supposed she was obliged to object to some one, so she had picked out the ugliest.

WASHBURN JOINS QUAY

He Receives Fierce Condemnation From the Democrats.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Guffey Characterizes a Statement Given Out by Washburn as Falsehood to Cover His Own Perfidy—Quay People Jubilant. Gives Them Senate Organization.

Harrisburg, Dec. 31.—Senator Washburn, of Crawford county, who was elected two years ago as a Populist, with Democratic and Prohibition endorsements, issued a formal statement announcing that he had allied himself with the Republican party and shall participate in its councils and organization. Mr. Washburn voted with the Democracy at the last session for George A. Jenks for United States senator and took part in its councils and voted for all party measures. His statement follows:

"I was elected two years ago as a Populist, receiving the support of the Prohibitionists and a larger share of the Democratic voters in my district. Hoping to secure results along reform lines, I co-operated with the Democrats during the last session, but was disappointed in the outcome. The Democrats of the state have seemed to be more intent upon partisan and personal advantage than in a desire to co-operate with all other forces to secure needed legislation. The example of the national Democratic convention in refusing to endorse Towne because he was not an old-line Democrat is an illustration of the spirit which has largely prevailed among Democratic leaders in this Commonwealth; nor has the insurgent Republicans shown any desire to co-operate for any other purpose except personal or partisan gain for themselves. The disrepute into which the regular Republican organization was brought previous to 1898 was caused by the scandals and corruption of which the members of the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia political rings were guilty. It was not Quay as much as the unscrupulous work of his followers in the two cities that precipitated the factional fight in the Republican party. Now the members of those rings, who are the real culprits the people ought to punish have raised a cry for 'reform,' and under cover of opposition to Quay cunningly seek to profit by the reaction against their party that their own misdeeds have brought about.

"Since the last election I have considered most of the issues fought out during that campaign as permanently settled, and while I do not regret my support of Mr. Bryan under the circumstances, I believe that the tremendous popular majority given to the Republican administration takes out of the realm of practical consideration most of the problems then discussed. Desiring to be a co-operator rather than a fault finder, recognizing that the People's party in Pennsylvania is extinct as a state organization, and that the overwhelming majority of the people of this Commonwealth desire an instant cessation of the factional strife that has for years corrupted the politics and prevented the proper administration of the affairs of the state, I shall henceforth ally myself with the Republican party. In this course I believe I shall be upheld by the majority of the people, both in my district and throughout the country. Neither the Democratic organization, controlled by the Standard Oil influence, nor the insurgent organization, whose leaders have been unequalled in corruption since the days of Tweed, attracts me, and in the future, following the example of United States Senators Stewart and Kyle, and of other equally prominent leaders who have been active in their efforts for better government, I shall work for all those better conditions in politics which sincere Democrats and all good citizens desire, and shall strive earnestly as a Republican for high ideals within the party and the right settlement of the intricate problems that confront the national and state administrations.

"In allying myself with the Republican party I shall participate in its councils and organization."

Mr. Washburn's declaration created much surprise, as he was counted on by the Democrats to vote with them on the organization of the senate and the party nominee for United States senator. His desertion gives the friends of Colonel M. S. Quay control of the senate and practically insures the election of William F. Snyder, of Chester, as president pro tem.

Colonel Quay's opponents still insisted that the former senator will not be elected and that the anti-Quay

Republicans and Democrats will control the organization of the house. Senator William Flinn, of Allegheny, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in Western Pennsylvania, said last night that the defeat of Quay for senator and William T. Marshall for speaker was absolutely assured. Colonel James M. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, the Democratic leader, in a statement last night, said:

"At a meeting of the house Democrats tomorrow morning (meaning Monday morning) a committee will be appointed to meet a like committee of independent Republicans to go over the question of a fusion organization of the house. My information is that if the independent Republicans have sufficient votes to accomplish it, that the Democrats will be unanimous for a fusion organization on a fair and equitable basis."

Mr. Marshall said positively that the stalwart Republicans will organize the house and that he will be elected speaker. Colonel Quay's friends were jubilant over the accession of Senator Washburn, and professed to be absolutely confident of his election. A caucus of the anti-Quay Republicans will be held today to formulate a plan for fusion with the Democrats on the organization of the house. A candidate for United States senator may also be chosen. The stalwart Republicans of the senate and house will hold caucuses this evening to select officers and employes and on tomorrow evening to formally nominate Colonel Quay for senator.

Senator C. L. Magee, of Allegheny, who has been under the treatment of a Philadelphia specialist since the close of the last legislature, came to Harrisburg Sunday to attend the session. Mr. Magee said he is gradually regaining his health and that he will take his seat in the senate on Tuesday. He has leased a house in Harrisburg and expected to stay here during the session with his family.

A meeting of the 30 Democratic senators and members in the city was held last night to take action on the desertion of Senator Washburn. A committee of three was appointed to wait upon the senator and another committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions against him.

The resolutions committee reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Democratic members of the general assembly that the reasons given for his proposed action of affiliating with the corrupt Quay machine but thinly disguised his disgraceful conduct in proving recreant to the trust reposed in him by the Democratic voters and good citizens of his district.

Resolved, That it has been more than a generation since our state was brought into like shame and disrepute by the bad faith and recreant conduct of three members of the assembly, who, disregarding their duty to their constituents, their fealty to their party and their obligations to the people of their districts to represent honorably and faithfully the trust reposed in them, and whose names have become a reproach and a by-word throughout the state as faithless legislators.

Resolved, That while we recognize the right of a member of the general assembly to vote his convictions on questions of economical and party policies, we condemn the action of Senator Washburn in allying himself with the Quay machine, which he has so frequently and earnestly denounced in the past, when the result of his course must inevitably lead, if successful, to again place in position and power the worst and most servile elements of the Republican party.

Colonel Guffey was asked after the Democratic meeting what he had to say regarding Washburn's declaration that the Democratic organization was controlled by Standard Oil influence. He said:

"It is not worthy of notice. A falsehood to cover his own perfidy."

The friends of Senator Quay claimed several gains during Sunday. The insurgents say they have lost no votes and have gained several. Each side gives the names of the recruits. The regulars give out the names of Senator John F. Budke, of Beaver-Washington district, in addition to Senator O. E. Washburn, of Crawford. The insurgents offset this with Representative Thomas J. Reynolds, of Lackawanna, and John P. Emery, of Venango, both of whom, they say, are on the Quay list. Emery and Reynolds attended the anti-Quay caucus last night and made speeches defining their position as irrevocably opposed to the machine on all questions.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE MAY STAND.

Chairman Johnson Says It Is Organized Until 1904.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee, who has passed through

Kansas City en route from Chicago to his home in Kansas, said:

"I am not in a position to say what will be done toward maintaining the Democratic organization perfected during the last campaign, but I will say that there will be no reorganization of the national committee. The committee is organized until 1904 and will remain as it is until that time. I believe that the present precinct organization can be maintained and made entirely self-supporting."

CAPTURED BY BOERS.

Took Strong British Position—English Had About 50 Killed and a Number Taken Prisoner.

London, Dec. 31.—The war office received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener:

"Pretoria, Dec. 30, 7:50 a. m.—General Lytleton reports that our post at Helvetia was captured yesterday morning by the Boers. About 50 were killed and wounded and 200 taken prisoners.

"Colonel Kitchener reports that he is following with a small force in the tracks of the enemy. Helvetia being reoccupied by Reeves, who has been reinforced from Belfast.

"Helvetia was a very strong position on the Machadodorp-Lydenburg railway and was held by a detachment of the Liverpool regiment. Am asking for further information."

MAD DOG FINALLY KILLED.

It Had Bitten a Man and About Twenty Dogs.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—After biting 20 dogs and a man a mad dog in this place was finally killed. The animal ran through the streets snapping at everything in sight. Policeman Frank McCormick started after the dog. It ran out Pittsburgh street, and at the corner of Pittsburg and Fayette streets met Boone Pierce, a son of Red Cloud, the Indian chief, who lives in a tent on the crest of Chestnut ridge, jumped on him and tore a large chunk of flesh from his leg.

His screams brought a crowd, which immediately joined itself to the crowd headed by McCormick. Most of the mob was well armed, and as they ran they fired at the fleeing animal. The dog was finally shot.

B. & O. May Secure an Island.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 31.—A movement is on foot at this place by which the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will become owners of Mus island, in the Youghiogheny river at this place. It is owned by the Hogg heirs, and lies next to the tract of land already owned by the Baltimore and Ohio. The millrace for the Calhoun & Co's planing mill runs between the mainland and the island. It is thought that the railroad will erect new shops on this tract at once, using the water power from the river.

Gov. Roosevelt Delivered Address in New York.

READ ALOUD AT OVER 100 MEETINGS

Copies of the Speech Had Been Sent Out In Advance to Other Associations Throughout the Country—Robert Speer, a Presbyterian Official, Also Spoke.

New York, Dec. 31.—Governor Roosevelt spoke Sunday afternoon at Carnegie hall before an audience of young men that completely filled the house. It was a mass meeting arranged by the Young Men's Christian association, of this city, but it was somewhat unique in the fact that the chief speaker was in a way addressing more than a hundred other audiences throughout the country. It had been arranged so that copies of Governor Roosevelt's address had been secured in advance, and sent to secretaries of associations throughout the country and it was said that the address was read aloud at more than a hundred other meetings at the same hour.

William E. Dodge presided, and among those on the platform were General O. O. Howard, General John R. Brooke and various officers from the harbor forts and the navy yard. There were also more than a hundred blue jackets and soldiers present, most of whom are members of the army and navy branch of the association. The New York festival chorus had elevated seats on the platform, and, conducted by Mr. Morgan, the director, rendered musical selections.

Mr. Dodge spoke briefly on the history of the Young Men's Christian association, and then eulogized Colonel Roosevelt in the various capacities in which he is known to the public. The vice president-elect was received with prolonged applause.

Robert E. Speer, lay secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, made the concluding address.

REV. GARVEY HONORED.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 31.—Rev. E. A. Garvey, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, Pittston, and vicar general of Scranton diocese, was invested with the title of monsignor by Bishop Hoban Sunday morning. The services were held in St. John's church and were very imposing. The bishop was assisted in the services by a large number of clergy.

Monsignor Garvey was formerly rector of St. Mary's church at Williamsport, and when Bishop O'Hara, of the Scranton diocese, died his name was one of the three sent to Rome to fill the vacancy. Rev. H. J. Hoban, however, was named for the place. Rev. Garvey was then transferred from Williamsport to Pittston and made vicar general of the diocese. Some months ago the pope named him as a domestic prelate, with the title of monsignor.

CHINA ACCEPTS TERMS

Plenipotentiaries Ordered to Sign Joint Note.

Guisey Characters.

Out by Washburn as Fair.

Pertidy—Quay People Jubilant.
pressed a organization.
Return to Pekin to the
ruary—Li Hung Chang Feeble.

Pekin, Dec. 31.—The Chinese plenipotentiaries were unexpectedly ordered to sign the preliminary joint note and have notified the foreign envoys to that effect.

The Chinese themselves were astonished at receiving the imperial instructions. Neither Li Hung Chang nor Prince Ching had expected success in persuading the court under 10 days.

The emperor's instructions are to agree fully to the note, but to endeavor to get the best terms possible, particularly in the matter of limiting the number of the legation guards, and also as to the places where these are to be located.

The plenipotentiaries are instructed to endeavor to limit the number of army posts along the line of railway to as few as possible, and finally to request the powers not to destroy the forts, but merely to disarm them.

Li Hung Chang's health is bad, and it is doubtful whether he will be able to do more than affix his signature to an instrument delegating his powers to Prince Ching until another plenipotentiary has been appointed. He dressed Sunday morning and was carried in a chair to the residence of Prince Ching, with whom he held a long consultation.

Prince Ching then called upon the Doyen of the diplomatic corps, the Spanish minister, Senor De Coloman, and requested him to notify the other envoys that instructions had been received from the emperor to sign the note.

Paris, Dec. 31.—The Havas agency received the following dispatch, Dec. 30, from Pekin:

"Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang have communicated to the foreign envoys an imperial edict, in which the emperor declares that China accepts the joint note and authorizes Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang to negotiate and to ask for a suspension of hostilities."

Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, according to another dispatch to the Havas agency, Dec. 30, said that Emperor Kwang Su had expressed a desire that the court should return to Pekin at the end of February.

ARMY BILL PROBABLY FIRST.

It May Be Given Precedence Over the Ship Subsidy Bill.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The combination of discredited Populists is not the only rock the ship subsidy bill will encounter as soon as congress convenes again. Senator Hawley announced his purpose of asking, on the day of reconvening, that the army reorganization bill be taken up. If there is objection he will move that it be taken up.

When he said he would make a motion to that effect he added that it is not his desire to antagonize Senator Hanna, but that the necessity for a reorganization of the army is so great that the bill must be quickly passed so that the war department may begin the recruiting necessary to replace the volunteer troops in the Philippines, whose terms of enlistment expire on July 1.

The president is anxious to have both bills passed, but, as the Democrats and Populists prefer the army bill to the bounty measure, it may be that choice will have to be made between the two. It is likely that the Republican steering committee will try to compromise the matter by having one bill made the unfinished business up to a certain hour, the subsidy bill to have the remainder of the time. The danger of such an arrangement is, however, that both will be lost.

Hiram Hitchcock Dead.

New York, Dec. 31.—Hiram Hitchcock, the last of the founders of the Fifth Avenue hotel, died at the hotel after a few days' illness from pneumonia. The deceased was born in Claremont, N. H., Aug. 27, 1832. In 1859, with Alfred B. Darling and Parson Stevens, Mr. Hitchcock founded the Fifth Avenue hotel.

Edwin G. Bedford Dead.

Paris, Ky., Dec. 31.—Edwin G. Bedford died near this city, aged 86 years. He was a noted breeder of short-horn cattle.

POPE TO HONOR THEM.

New Cardinals to Be Named—Holy Father Champions Cause of French Religious Communities

Rome, Dec. 31.—It is reported that the recent disagreement between the French government and the pope regarding the appointment of bishops has been removed. At the consistory in January a number of new cardinals will be created, but no American is among them. English pilgrims propose to erect a grand monument in St. Peter's to the memory of the British pope, Hadrian. A large number of pilgrims was expected to arrive in Rome today, headed by Cardinal Vaughan and the Duke of Norfolk.

Paris, Dec. 31.—An interview with the pope, published in The Matin, was followed by an official letter from his holiness to Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, detailing the services rendered to civilization by the French religious communities, and energetically condemning the government's proposed bill to deprive these communities of the liberty they have hitherto enjoyed.

From the terms of the letter it becomes evident that the pope has exhausted every expedient and all the diplomatic means at his command to induce the government to abandon its proposed anti-clerical bill, and that he now feels called upon to make a supreme appeal to the religious conscience of the nation. The letter concludes with the following passage:

"It is the duty of French bishops to work with harmony in thought and act in order to enlighten the public mind and safeguard the rights and interests of the religious communities, whose existence, liberty and prosperity are important factors in the Catholic church and for both France and humanity as a whole."

This is considered tantamount to an open declaration of hostility to Waldeck-Rousseau and his government. Already the reactionary papers seized occasion to agitate the public mind and make political capital out of the religious sentiments of the masses.

A BOY KIDNAPED.

Sheriff and Indignant Citizens Were In Chase—Deed Occurred In Michigan.

Houghton, Mich., Dec. 31.—The 5-year-old son of Mrs. Raymond Thiervy, of Dollar Bay, has been kidnaped, evidently in the hope of securing a ransom. It is believed the boy was taken by a well-known character in the copper region, and the sheriff with a large posse of indignant citizens is scouring the country, hoping to catch him before he gets beyond the state line. It is thought he is heading for Canada.

Omaha, Dec. 31.—Mr. Cudahy received another letter, the orthography of which was poor as was also the writing, which was apparently written by the same person as the letter dated Dec. 19, demanding the ransom. The letter was addressed "E. A. Cudahy, 518 South Thirty-seventh street, Omaha." The address as well as the letter is printed in lead pencil. The latter was written on common note paper, ruled with blue ink, which is scarcely traceable. The postmark shows that the letter was mailed at the postoffice about 8 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 22. The letter reads: "Cudahy, if you value the boy's life at the Price of A Bullet you will withdraw the Reward at once. And let well enough alone, if you don't do this we will finish the Job with a Bullet. If any man whether guilty or innocent is ever arrested A Bullet will close the Boy's mouth. You will think of this warning when it is to late."

The only marked difference between this letter and the letter demanding a ransom is in the greater number of misspelled words. This, however, may be an affectation, for the most difficult words are spelled correctly, while some of the simple words are misspelled.

Mr. Cudahy stated that he has not withdrawn the reward and does not propose to do so.

Detectives secured information which they expect will result in locating the buggy used by the men in the abduction. Robert Robinson positively identified Crowe as the man who acted as a principal in the negotiations with the Schneiders for the Grover street cottage, in which young Cudahy was supposed to have been imprisoned.

Burt L. Goodale Dead.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—Burt L. Goodale, a theatrical man of Los Angeles, Cal., died here after a short illness.

AMERICAN WOMEN.

Call Caine Stated Their Position Was Higher Than That of Any Other Nation In the World.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dec. 31.—Hall Caine, writing to the Sorosis, a local woman's club, under date of Greba-castle, Isle of Man, Dec. 8, said:

"When one considers what the position of woman was, even in the most civilized countries, as recently as 100 years ago, and how high a place she has now won for herself, not only in the statute books of nations, but in the republic of art, one cannot but feel that the change is even more remarkable than some of the great material developments which have distinguished the century."

"Speaking as one who has seen life in many countries, I feel that it is within the truth to say that the position of woman is higher in America than in any other part of the world. For this result American women have, no doubt, to thank their own natural gifts and great independence of mind, but they have also, I think, to be grateful to the splendid chivalry in the other sex, which is nowhere more conspicuous than in the best type of American gentlemen."

"Hall Caine."

MILES WAS UNDECIDED.

May or May Not Reply to Alger's Article—Questioned Necessity of Answering It.

Washington, Dec. 31.—General Miles was not yet prepared to make any formal statement in reply to the published article of former Secretary Alger, regarding the use of canned beef and embalmed beef during and after the Spanish war. He is still undecided as to whether he will have any statement to make, saying in reply to questions on the subject that he has not yet fully determined what his course will be. General Miles said he had not even read the full extracts from General Alger's article published in the newspapers, such as he had seen being so full of misleading statements that he did not care to go through with the entire matter.

"One hundred thousand soldiers have gone home from the Spanish war and told the story, and the proper officers have condemned the action of certain persons," said General Miles, "so that I question whether it is necessary to say anything further about the controversy."

Seranton Street Car Strike Settled.

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 31.—1 a. m.—About 12:45 this morning the street car strike was called off. President Clark, General Manager Sillman and Directors John and Timothy Burke came to the hall after the vote to compromise was passed and were received with tumultuous cheers. The men demanded what was equivalent to an advance of 3 cents an hour. They were allowed 2 cents.

A Fire at Columbus.

Columbus, Dec. 31.—Fire on the upper floor of the sixth story of the business block at Fourth and Main streets caused a loss estimated at $50,000. The chief damage was by water, which deluged the stocks of the various merchants occupying the building.

Presented a Wage Scale.

Sharon, Pa., Dec. 31.—The National Steel company presented its wage scale for 1901 to the employees of its various works throughout the country for consideration. It is not likely it will be accepted here, unless some modifications are made, as it means a reduction of 10 per cent over the prevailing scale. The present scale expired today, and unless a new one is signed a shutdown will result. The new scale embodies the same rate of wages paid in 1899.

Lou Hartman Captured.

Clarion, Pa., Dec. 31.—Lou Harmon, who escaped from jail here, was captured at New Bethlehem. It seems after escaping from jail he went to Summerville and then down to the low-grade railroad, and by some accident fell and broke his leg. When he applied at a doctor's office for help he was recognized and word sent here and the officers went for him.

Murderer McDonald Dead.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Samuel McDonald, the government clerk who murdered Auditor Morris, of the war department, died here. He fought against living. It was thought the message from his brother, W. H. McDonald, of the Bostonians, saying he could not leave the company to come to him for some time, and the fact that Judge McDonald, his uncle, from Stenbenville, O., had left for home, disheartened him. The widow of Morris expressed satisfaction on hearing of McDonald's death, as she hated the ordeal of a trial and feared McDonald's friends might get him off with an easy punishment.

Minister Declined a Call.

Cleveland, Dec. 31.—Rev. Dr. W. W. Weeks, of Toronto, Ont., has declined a call to the Euclid Avenue Baptist church in this city. This is the church of which John D. Rockefeller is a leading member. It has been without a pastor since last summer. It was announced Sunday that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., had been granted a letter of withdrawal from this church to the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, in New York.

Two Fatal Elevator Accidents.

Cleveland, Dec. 31.—Two fatal elevator accidents occurred within five minutes in buildings only a short distance from each other. Sydney Hamm, of London, Ont., stepped into an open shaft and fell six stories, and Ralph Spellman, aged 19, fell nine stories. Both were instantly killed.

Germany Not Buying Them.

Copenhagen, Dec. 31.—In Danish official circles the report that Germany is negotiating to purchase the Danish Antilles is denied. "If the islands are to be sold," said a high official, "the purchaser will be the United States and no other power. All will be sold or none."
